

The Chaos Agent

The superb, action-packed new Gray Man thriller

Mark Greaney

Keynote

The scintillating new novel in the New York Times #1 bestselling Gray Man series, as seen on Netflix.

Description

Artificial intelligence leads to shockingly real devastation in this new novel in the #1 New York Times bestselling Gray Man series.

A car accident in Japan.
A drowning in Seoul.
A home invasion in Boston.

Someone is killing the world's leading experts on robotics and artificial intelligence. Is it a tech company trying to eliminate the competition or something even more sinister? After all, AI may be the deadliest battlefield gamechanger since the creation of gunpowder.

Meanwhile, the quest for a quiet life has led the Gray Man to Central America, where he and his lover Zoya Zakharova have assumed new identities. Eventually, they're tracked down and offered a job by an old acquaintance of Zoya's: to extract a Russian scientist who is on the kill list. They reject it, but just being seen with him is enough to put assassins on their trail.

Now, they're back on the run, but no matter which way they turn, whoever's tracking them is always one step ahead. Since flight's no longer possible, fight is the only option left, and no one fights dirtier than the Gray Man.

Sales Points

- BIG FANBASE Little, Brown has sold more than 600,000 copies of the Gray Man series to date, making Mark Greaney one of the biggest action thriller authors in the UK

Tom Clancy Defense Protocol
The latest Jack Ryan action-packed bestseller
Andrews & Wilson

Keynote

The new novel starring the original action thriller hero Jack Ryan, creation of the legendary Tom Clancy.

Description

The stakes are sky-high when a power-mad Chinese president threatens Taiwan in the #1 New York Times bestselling Jack Ryan series.

For decades, Taiwan has been a thorn in the side of the Chinese government. New Chinese President Li Jian Jun is done fooling around. He's devised a secret military operation to take the island. Only one man knows how to stop Li's bloody plan for reunification: Minister of Defense Qin Haiyu. Fearing for his life and the safety of his family, Qin covertly makes contact with the CIA in Beijing and signals his desire to defect to the West.

To get Qin out, John Clark creates an international task force reminiscent of Rainbow Six and goes undercover in mainland China. Meanwhile, Lt. Commander Katie Ryan is deployed to the tip of the spear on the destroyer USS Jason Dunham to defend Taiwan. Threatened by an encircling Chinese armada, she's under pressure to find a flaw in the invaders' plan for her father to exploit.

For his part, President Jack Ryan may have the power of the entire US military at his disposal, but what he really needs are Li's secret plans from Defense Minister Qin so he can stave off a war. Because America's Defense Protocol could lead to a game of mutual destruction that could cost the lives of thousands of young soldiers, sailors, special operators . . . and his daughter.

Jack Ryan returns in a blockbuster new novel of action, thrills and intrigue in the world created by master storyteller Tom Clancy.

The Teenager's Guide to Burnout Finding the Road to Recovery

Dr. Naomi Fisher and Eliza Fricker

Keynote

A new illustrated guide for teenagers that feel burnt out from the pressures of school and life, offering practical tools and support for recovery.

Description

An essential guide for all teenagers experiencing stress and burnout

Does any of this sound like you?

- Lacking in energy and feeling that your life has lost its sparkle
- Feeling like you can't ever quite relax
- Unable to sleep despite being exhausted all the time
- Finding that you don't really enjoy anything anymore, even things you used to love
- Feeling that everyone is irritating and no one understands
- Finding going to school really hard or not possible at all anymore

Then this book might help.

These are signs that you are experiencing burnout – your battery has taken a battering and you are running on empty. Many people think burnout only happens to adults, but it's something lots of teenagers experience too.

This book will help you to understand what burnout is, how you got there and what you can do to get back to a life you enjoy.

We've written it to help you work out if you might be burnt out, and if so, what you can do about it. It will help you identify some of the ways that you might be getting stuck when you're trying to get better. You'll get some ideas as to what is and isn't helping. And if you decide that you aren't really burnt out but you're heading that way, this book has some ideas to stop it from happening in the future.

Co-written by expert clinical psychologist Dr Naomi Fisher, who has helped many teenagers deal with the stresses and pressures of school and life, and by bestselling author and illustrator Eliza Fricker.

Sales Points

- A follow up to Naomi Fisher's bestselling, chart-topping and influential guide to self-directed learning, Changing Our Minds.
- Fully illustrated and co-authored by Eliza Fricker, whose recent Can't Not Won't became JKP's first ever Sunday Times bestseller.
- First in a potential series of illustrated guides for teenagers.

Author Biography

Dr. Naomi Fisher (Author)

Dr Naomi Fisher is a clinical psychologist who specialises in trauma, autism and alternative education. She is the mother of two and the author of several books on psychology, education and mental health. Her work has featured in The Psychologist, The Green Parent, Juno, SEN Magazine and she has appeared on many podcasts including Reasons to be Cheerful with Ed Miliband and Geoff Lloyd.

Eliza Fricker (Author)

Eliza Fricker is an author and illustrator who has written and illustrated two books of her own (The Family Experience of PDA and The Sunday Times bestseller Can't Not Won't) as well as having illustrated several others. She runs a successful illustrated blog about her experiences with her daughter's school attendance struggles (missingthemark.co.uk). She created the Missing the Mark podcast, an exploration of what happens when a child isn't happy at school. She has spoken at the Rethinking Education conference and gives talks to local authorities on what it's like for families when a child can't attend school.

A Guide for Parents 2nd edition

Cathy Laver-Bradbury, Margaret Thompson, Anne Weeks, David Daley and Edmund Sonuga-Barke

Keynote

A flexible six-step programme for parents and professionals supporting children with ADHD.

Description

Raising a child with ADHD can be challenging, but with the right knowledge and tools, parents and professionals can use this tried and tested six-step programme to better understand their ADHD child and help them thrive in any environment.

This simple, flexible six-step programme is full of tried-and-tested ideas for parents and professionals supporting families of young children with ADHD. The programme includes games that will help improve the child's attention, exercises to develop waiting skills and tips for supporting the child in successful self-organization. This newly updated second edition incorporates the latest research on ADHD, including insights into hyperfocus and strategies for aiding emotional regulation and also provides proven techniques for behaviour management. In addition to this, the programme now delves deeper into the role of sleep, diet, mindfulness, and social stories in supporting children with ADHD.

Based on research and extensive clinical experience, Step by Step Help for Children with ADHD will help families to adapt their parenting to the child, improving relationships and behaviours in the home and at school.

Sales Points

- The previous edition sold consistently since its publication in 2010, selling 7,344 copies in this time.
- The authors are all well respected practitioners who specialise in ADHD and attention disorders.
- This updated edition contains a lot of new information on relevant and timely topics including diet, sleep and hyperfocus.

Energy Accounting Stress Management and Mental Health Monitoring for Autism and Related Conditions

Maja Toudal and Tony Attwood

Keynote

The go-to-guide to exploring what Energy Accounting is, how it can benefit autistic individuals and others seeking stress management, and how it can be implemented into everyday life.

Description

The world can be stressful and difficult to navigate for neurodivergent people. There is potential for chronic exhaustion and burnout from trying to cope with social and sensory experiences, being misunderstood and criticized, high levels of anxiety and, for many reasons, not feeling in touch with your authentic self.

Delivering the first authoritative introduction to this practical, neurodiversity-affirming technique, Energy Accounting features straightforward step-by-step instructions on how adjustments can be made to reduce stress and increase energy and improve quality of life.

Including advice for clinicians who want to use this important approach with clients, as well as a wide range of additional resources available at www.jkp.com or via energyaccounting.com Energy Accounting will be beneficial to anyone who experiences burnout or difficulties with stress management.

Sales Points

- Tony Attwood and Maja Toudal are very well-respected and have extensive knowledge in the area of autism. Tony Attwood's second book, The Complete Guide to Asperger's Syndrome, has sold c.85,000 copies since publication in 2016.
- - Stress and anxiety are known to disproportionately affect autistic individuals, with studies repeatedly showing this group to be at a higher risk of developing on-going mental health conditions (estimates indicate up to 84% of autistic individuals will experience heightened levels of anxiety: Anxiety in Children and Adolescents with Autism Spectrum Disorders - PMC (nih.gov)). Energy accounting meets this need directly.

Author Biography

Maja Toudal is an autistic author, speaker, online self-advocate, autism consultant and clinical psychologist. She has written for Autism Denmark and several online publications. She co-hosts the podcast Autistic Tidbits and Tangents and works in a private practice in Denmark.

Tony Attwood is a clinical psychologist who has specialised in autism spectrum conditions since he qualified in 1975. He runs a private practice, and is also Adjunct Professor at Griffith University, Queensland. His seminal book Asperger's Syndrome - A Guide for Parents and Professionals has sold over 800,000 copies and has been translated into 30 languages.

Market

Autistic individuals and their families; clinicians working with ASC individuals across the lifespan to support their well-being, including: CAMHS staff, adult mental health workers and counsellors, as well as clinical psychologists, psychiatrists, teachers and employers. Other groups seeking stress management, such as those living with anxiety, depression, ADHD/ADD, or other challenges.

Myofascial Magic in Action A Movement Practitioner's Guide to How the Body Really Moves

Joanne Avison. Foreword by John Sharkey

Keynote

Learn the magic of the 5 Rs of the myofascial matrix-in-motion through clear, straightforward explanations that make sense of our inner body logic, for all ages and stages of fitness.

Description

Myofascial Magic in Action is the first of five books explaining how fascia relates fundamentally to human movement and changes all that we thought we knew. Joanne Avison's explanations are straightforward and accessible while exploring keys to balance, poise, ease of motion, longevity, resilience and the natural magic of this incredible tissue network within EVERY human body. In this book, you will discover the magic of how myofascia (particularly) and fascia (universally) design individual shape and motion. You will uncover the "5 Rs of myofascial magic":

- Rebound - how we use the ground as a free resource
- Recoil - how the human blueprint relies on it for well-being
- Release - how everyone has access to (metabolically) free elastic energy
- Restore - how every age and stage of fitness and ability can be optimised
- Refine - how to optimise whatever is best for the individual, however they are at the time

Learning about the intricate and fascinating web of connective tissue, known as the fascia, will transform your practice and the way you perceive the human body and the beings you work with. As a practitioner, regardless of modality, this serves the keys to optimising programmes for different clients. This is a fantastic resource for yoga teachers, therapists, and movement professionals as well as manual therapists looking for small micro-movements to give their clients for homework. Distinguish where the magic happens, from the inside out.

Sales Points

- Author experience: The author is an advanced yoga practitioner and certified yoga therapist with over 30 years of manual and movement practice.
- Fascia and yoga: Fascia is relevant to all movement practitioners, of every discipline and manual therapists.
- Accessible: Clear, straightforward information in an accessible language for all abilities and highly illustrated. Detailing the fundamentals of fascia and how to optimise ANY movement discipline (and manual therapy) with progressive micro-movements and modifications that are clearly explained and illustrated. (With the science where required).

Reviews

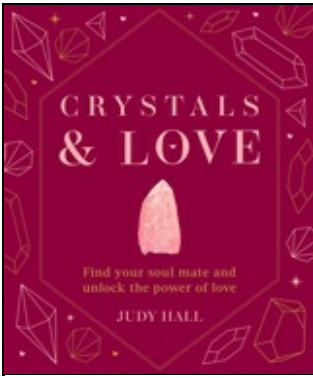

- 'Insightful, interesting, and engaging. Joanne's new book embarks on a magical journey of discovery into the world of myofascia. Joanne and her contributors use historical perspective, shrewd metaphors, and creative and practical ideas to demonstrate the fundamental importance of myofascia in enabling movement and thus its contribution to our being.' - Professor Darrell Evans, BSc, PhD, Anatomist and Embryologist, University of Newcastle, Australia.
- 'Fracturing old, outdated ideas, Avison offers an eloquent, leading-edge account of the art and science of fasciategrity, embellished with her whimsical drawings and a flowing narrative, which delivers a heightened level of enjoyment and awareness to movement theory and practice. A true gift.' - Carol M Davis, Professor Emerita, University of Miami Miller School of Medicine

Author Biography

Dr Joanne Avison is an international teacher of movement and manual therapy, teaching applied structural anatomy for movement and manual practitioners in a variety of fields. As an advanced Yoga Practitioner and Certified Yoga Therapist, C-IAYT (Certified by International Association of Yoga Therapists), Joanne appreciates the art, craft and science of yoga and subtle body architecture. Her doctorate degree in Spiritual Sciences has deepened her understanding of yoga and the philosophy behind it - and how the being animates the body, whatever the physical practice, performance or ability. She lives in Brighton, UK.

A Cheesemonger's Tour de France

NED PALMER

KEYNOTE

A cheesemonger's guide to the world of French cheese, complete with tasting notes and serving suggestions

SALES POINTS

- A glorious tour of France and French cheese, featuring tasting notes, serving suggestions, and the fascinating stories of artisan cheesemongers and fromagers across the country
- Ned Palmer's previous titles, A Cheesemonger's History of the British Isles and A Cheesemonger's Compendium of British and Irish Cheese, have sold a combined 52k copies through Bookscan
- The follow-up to Palmer's enormously successful A Cheesemonger's History of the British Isles, the perfect Christmas gift for cheese lovers and Francophiles

DESCRIPTION

Charles de Gaulle famously said it was impossible to govern a country with 246 different cheeses. And perhaps he was right. Every French cheese carries an essence of the place where it's made - its history, identity and landscape. Sometimes that's a physical thing, as the hard texture of Comté echoes its rugged Alpine home. Other times it's about power and politics - Brie swelling to royal dimensions due to its proximity to the French court, or Camembert gaining national status after being supplied in patriotic boxes to First World War soldiers.

In A Cheesemonger's Tour de France, Ned Palmer wends his way around the country's regions, meeting the remarkable cheesemakers who carry the torch for France's oldest and most intense traditions. As he explains the mysteries of terroir and why each of those different fromages taste as they do, he shows that a French cheeseboard offers genuine insights into la Belle République.

AUTHOR BIOGRAPHY

Ned Palmer runs the Cheese Tasting Company, whose unique events pair cheese with wines, beers, whiskies and history. After studying philosophy, theatre and experimental psychology, he worked as a jazz pianist and hospital porter, before helping out on a stall at Borough Market led him into a life of cheesemongering.

SALES POINTS

- Over one million copies sold
- A popular title, reissued with up-to-date predictions
- The indispensable guide to astrology and zodiac signs, perfect for those interested in tarot, birth charts, personality tests and the like

DESCRIPTION

Now in its tenth edition, The Handbook of Chinese Horoscopes is the most comprehensive and up-to-date work on the Chinese lunar zodiac, skillfully combining the Eastern lunar calendar with Western astrology.

Discover which of the twelve animal signs you are and the effects of the other influences you were born under, from the five elements, the four seasons, to the ascendant signs of the hour of your birth.

Introducing the origins and personalities of each sign each chapter explains in detail how your sign will interact with other signs to guide you through relationships and life. How can you and your partner's personalities be explained, and discover what the future holds for you.

With extensive new material, including how your horoscope can reveal the right wedding date for you, the compatibility between the 144 possible marriage combinations, and much more, The Handbook of Chinese Horoscopes is the definitive book on Chinese astrology.

AUTHOR BIOGRAPHY

Theodora Lau was born in Shanghai and is a Chinese horoscope expert, and her Handbook of Chinese Horoscopes has been in print for over 40 years. Laura Lau, her daughter, continues the family writing tradition and is the co-author of Wedding Feng Shui.

A Dinosaur Story: Fire in the Forest A Dinosaur Story about Being Polite

Damian Harvey (Illustrated By Hannah Wood)

Keynote

The A Dinosaur Story series follows a group of dinosaur friends who, through getting themselves in and out of some sticky situations, learn about good manners and behaviour

Description

Each book in the A Dinosaur Story series follows a group of dinosaur friends who get into some sticky situations but, in doing so, helps them to learn about good manners and behaviour.

In Fire in the Forest, Deano is being rude to his parents so they tell him to go out to calm down and get some air. He sees some smoke in the air but has never seen any before so doesn't know what it is. He speaks rudely to and pushes rudely past several other dinosaurs to run towards it only to come face to face with the fire. Luckily his dad rescues him and Deano promises to be more polite and listen to others in future.

The A Dinosaur Story series is great to read aloud or to share with friends and family. Each book includes notes for parents, teachers and care-givers which give suggestions for how to reinforce and extend understanding of the message of each book.

The series also supports the Personal, Social and Emotional Development Area of Learning in the Early Years Foundation Stage, and is suitable for use with children in KS1. Suitable for children aged 3+.

Sales Points

- Original stories by author Damian Harvey, who has written more than 150 books for children
- Humorous illustrations by Hannah Wood bring the dinosaur characters to life
- Includes notes for parents, teachers and carers to help start discussions around the topics

A Dinosaur Story: Stuck in the Mud A Dinosaur Story about Listening

Damian Harvey (Illustrated By Hannah Wood)

Keynote

The A Dinosaur Story series follows a group of dinosaur friends who, through getting themselves in and out of some sticky situations, learn about good manners and behaviour

Description

Each book in the A Dinosaur Story series follows a group of dinosaur friends who get into some sticky situations but in doing so, helps them to learn about good manners and behaviour.

In Stuck in the Mud, Seren wants to play with her friends. Before she goes, her mum says 'stay away from the swamp' but Seren wasn't listening. Throughout the story, different characters try to tell Seren and Steg to stay away but they don't listen and, before they know it, they're stuck in the swamp mud. Luckily their friends had followed them and help them out. Seren realises the importance of listening.

The A Dinosaur Story series is great to read aloud or to share with friends and family. Each book includes notes for parents, teachers and care-givers which give suggestions for how to reinforce and extend understanding of the message of each book.

The series also supports the Personal, Social and Emotional Development Area of Learning in the Early Years Foundation Stage, and is suitable for use with children in KS1. Suitable for children aged 3+.

What would you do?: Community and the Environment Moral dilemmas for kids

Jana Mohr Lone (Illustrated By Sarah Jennings)

Keynote

This book explores everyday moral dilemmas and teaches children about values, behaviour and principles to help guide them through life

Description

- Should you say something to someone who drops litter?
- Should you still visit a National Park when it's being damaged because of too many visitors?
- Should you give money to a homeless person?

This fun children's book gives six real-life moral dilemmas that children might face and asks the readers to consider the pros and cons for possible resolutions. It gives readers lots to think about but, in the end, asks the child 'What would YOU do?', leaving the ultimate decision to them. It will help children to gain independent-thinking and decision-making skills.

The situations have been tested in classrooms to ensure the examples and resolutions are age-appropriate. There are notes for parents and teachers at the back of each book.

The author, Jana Mohr Lone, is Executive Director of Philosophy Learning and Teaching Organization (PLATO), an affiliate faculty in philosophy at the University of Washington. Jana has been leading philosophy sessions with students from preschool to graduate school for over 25 years.

Read the other titles in the series: Bravery, Fairness, Family, Friendship, Honesty.

This fun children's book gives six real-life moral dilemmas that children might face and asks the readers to consider the pros and cons for possible resolutions. It gives readers lots to think about but, in the end, asks the child 'What would YOU do?', leaving the ultimate decision to them. It will help children to gain independent-thinking and decision-making skills.

The situations have been tested in classrooms to ensure the examples and resolutions are age-appropriate. There are notes for parents and teachers at the back of each book.

The What Would You Do? series teaches children about values and behaviour, encouraging empathy for others, respect and responsibility while developing their critical thinking and decision-making skills.

The author, Jana Mohr Lone, is Executive Director of Philosophy Learning and Teaching Organization (PLATO), an affiliate faculty in philosophy at the University of Washington. Jana has been leading philosophy sessions with students from preschool to graduate school for over 25 years.

Read the other titles in the series: Bravery, Family, Friendship, Honesty, Community and the Environment.

Evil Beetle Versus Science: The Electric Attack A Science Comic Book About Electricity

Paul Mason (Illustrated By Scott Garrett)

Keynote

A humorous science comic-book story that explains key concepts about electricity

Description

A humorous science comic-book story that explains key concepts about electricity. Loveable anti-heroine Evil Beetle thinks she can get rid of the noisy gardener and his radio by cutting off the electricity. But, Evil Beetle doesn't know enough about science to make the plan work! The hilarious story is full of facts about electricity and is perfect for children aged 6 plus who love comic books. For children progressing through book bands, it is suitable for children reading at Book Band 11: Lime.

Evil Beetle Vs Science is a series of books about a hapless anti-heroine and her loyal band of minibeast sidekicks. Evil Beetle's plots keep going wrong because she doesn't understand science! Luckily her friend Smart Snail is on hand to explain, and readers will learn key science concepts while enjoying Evil Beetle's attempts to keep her garden free from intruders.

Titles in the series: The Shadow of Doom (Light); The Itching Powder Plot (Plants); The Alarm Call (Sound); The Electric Attack (Electricity); The Garden Force Attack (Forces); Building the Secret Headquarters (Materials).

Sales Points

- Entertaining story format with science concepts that are aligned to the national curriculum
- Scott Garrett's bright artwork paired with Paul Mason's hilarious storylines are perfect for children who want to be entertained as they learn
- The endmatter includes a summary of the learning and Smart Snail's quiz to test if the reader can do better than Evil Beetle

Author Biography

Paul Mason (Author)

Paul's books cover a wide range of subjects, from whether the Romans ate crisps to how to build the world's best skatepark, but he writes mostly about sport. Whether you are interested in swimming, cycling, snowboarding, surfing or another sport, Paul has probably written something that will inspire you to get out and give it a try. Paul writes in a shack by the beach, which he shares with his one-eyed surf dog, Daisy.

Description

Will Jamie be bound by duty or follow his heart? The Princess Diaries meets Red, White and Royal Blue in this deliciously royal queer YA romance from the bestselling co-author of If This Gets Out.

Jamie expected a cake, not a crown, for his seventeenth birthday, but when he finds out he is the prince of a tiny European country called Mitamor, life will never be the same.

Erik, the spare heir of neighbouring country Sunstad, is feeling stifled and miserable as his golden-boy brother prepares to get married. So when he's offered the opportunity to teach an American how to be a prince, he leaps at the chance.

But in between garden parties, balls and lessons in royal etiquette, sparks fly between the two princes, and they are forced to choose between love and duty.

Sales Points

- Cale Dietrich is the co-author of the bestselling If This Gets Out, which has sold 65k across all formats
- Commercial writing, a hooky plot, and queer lovable characters with a royal twist, which we have seen do incredibly well in the market with comp titles such as Red, White and Royal Blue
- A diverse and heart-warming story, perfectly pitched at consumers of romance on both TikTok and Netflix

Author Biography

Cale Dietrich is a YA devotee, lifelong gamer, and tragic pop punk enthusiast. He was born in Perth, grew up on the Gold Coast, and now lives in Brisbane, Australia.

One Life, One Planet: One Bee in Billions Why Biodiversity Matters

Sarah Ridley (Illustrated By Vivian Mineker)

Keynote

A beautiful picture book, produced in association with the Natural History Museum, that explores how the life of one bee is linked to countless others and why biodiversity matters

Description

A beautiful picture book that explores how one the life of one bee is linked to countless other living things and why biodiversity matters. Produced in association with the Natural History Museum, the book helps young children explore conservation without being alarmist. It is full of interesting facts and covers topics including pollination, why bees are important and what we can do to help.

The book is part of the series One Life, One Planet for children age 5 plus. Titles in the series:

One Blue Whale in Ten Thousand
One Bee in Billions
One Amur Tiger in Five Hundred
One Koala in Fifty Thousand

Sales Points

- Links to the KS1 curriculum 'Living things and their habitats'
- Produced in association with the Natural History Museum
- In December 2022 at COP 15, 188 countries adopted a new Global Biodiversity Framework to "halt and reverse" biodiversity loss - these books help young children see why this is important
- The simple picture book approach is appealing to children who are keen to learn facts about their favourite animals

Author Biography

Sarah Ridley (Author)

Sarah Ridley has an enduring interest in history, the natural world and many other topics, which has made her work as an editor and writer of children's information books endlessly fascinating. Some of her books have been shortlisted or longlisted for information book awards, including Dear Jelly: Family Letters from the First World War and Suffragettes and the Fight for the Vote. Sarah lives in Colchester with her husband and her student daughter's guinea pigs.

Vivian Mineker (Illustrator)

Vivian Mineker is a Taiwanese-American illustrator who mainly works with watercolour and gouache. When she's not drawing or painting, you can probably find her outside running around with her dog Darlie, browsing and sniffing at books in bookstores, and occasionally stopping for a cup of coffee or a piece of cake.

Take this Woman

A moving and utterly compelling coming-of-age saga

Josephine Cox

Keynote

A dramatic, coming-of-age tale from No.1 bestselling writer Josephine Cox.

Description

After growing up in bitterness, can she overcome past events to find the happiness she deserves?

Take This Woman is a powerful saga about learning to put your past behind you in the pursuit of happiness, from bestselling author Josephine Cox. Perfect for fans of Rosie Goodwin and Kitty Neale.

Blackburn, 1947. In the tiny front parlour fourteen-year-old Laura Blake watches her beloved father die. But not before he tells her she will make something of her life. Laura never forgets his words. Yet her path to success proves to be a rocky one. Forced to trundle a cart around the back streets, selling other folk's cast-offs to support her family, Laura learns enough to start work in her uncle's furniture shop. But then fate deals another cruel blow when Laura is brutally raped. Bearing the child of her attacker in secret, she vows to make the world pay for its injustice towards her.

As she grows older her protective shell hardens even as her beauty blossoms, and her new toughness helps her forge a successful career in the antiques business. But it is in affairs of the heart that Laura stumbles, and before she can find fulfilment, she must learn to put the past behind her, and give as well as take.

What readers are saying about Take This Woman:

Author Biography

Josephine Cox was born in a cotton-mill house in Blackburn, one of ten children. At the age of sixteen, Josephine met and married her husband Ken, and had two sons. When the boys started school, she decided to go to college and eventually gained a place at Cambridge University. She was unable to take this up as it would have meant living away from home, but she went into teaching - and started to write her first full-length novel. Her strong, gritty stories are taken from the tapestry of life.

Jessica's Girl Everyone has secrets...

Josephine Cox

Keynote

In the face of adversity and heartache, can Phoebe Mulligan ever find happiness in this classic novel by Sunday Times bestselling author Josephine Cox?

Description

Jessica's Girl* by Josephine Cox, the Sunday Times bestselling author of Lonely Girl and Whistledown Woman, is a classic that will appeal to fans of Catherine Cookson and Lyn Andrews alike. 'Cox's talent as a storyteller never lets you escape' - Daily Mail.

'Don't let him break you, child.'

Despite a deathbed warning from her beloved mother, Phoebe Mulligan has no choice but to throw herself on the mercy of her uncle, Edward. Wrenched from all she holds dear, the tragic young girl is delivered to Blackburn town, where she must live in a household terrorised by the cold, forbidding presence of her mother's brother.

Phoebe cannot understand why she is treated so harshly by Edward Dickens. She is not to know the guilty secret that lies in his past, a secret that casts a sinister shadow over his feelings for his lovely niece . . .

But Phoebe's spirit will not be broken. Her natural warmth and cheerfulness win her many friends and although she must endure horror and heartbreak, all the riches a woman can have come within her reach . . .

 What readers are saying about Jessica's Girl: **

'A very good read, keeps you guessing until the end. Found it hard to put down'

'Great story like always - [Josephine Cox] takes me to another world'

'[Josephine Cox's] books never fail to keep me interested and intrigued as to the outcome. Really enjoyable'

Whistledown Woman

An evocative saga of family, devotion and secrets

Josephine Cox

Keynote

A moving story about a beautiful girl growing up unaware of her true inheritance from bestselling novelist Josephine Cox.

Description

 What if everything you've been brought up to believe was a lie?

Whistledown Woman is the moving story of a beautiful girl growing up unaware of her true inheritance, from bestselling author Josephine Cox. Perfect for fans of Kitty Neale and Lindsey Hutchinson.

On a moonlit night in 1898, Kathleen Wyman lies in labour at Bessington Hall. Her husband, Edward, is sure that she has been unfaithful to him. In his blind, jealous rage he later gives away the baby to gypsy Rona Parrish, summoned to help with the delivery. Kathleen, frenzied with grief, is soon after locked away in an asylum.

Rejected by her father, the little girl begins her new life with only a valuable brooch pinned to her shawl as a clue to her true origins. Named after Rona's own mother, the lovely raven-haired Starlena grows up in ignorance of her true parentage and vast inheritance, believing her birthplace to be the beautiful Whistledown Valley. And Rona, always afraid, stays watchful over the years for any sign that someone might track Starlena down - someone who wishes her harm...

 What readers are saying about Whistledown Woman:

'A brilliant novel by Josephine Cox. Gripping and romantic combined with subterfuge. A very unusual storyline makes this a different story'

'Couldn't put this book down, had everything: romance, sadness, suspense'

'I loved the story, lots of twists and turns - such a realistic, descriptive style which transported me into the story'

Death on the Prowl Campbell & Carter Mystery 8

Ann Granger

Keynote

The eighth Campbell and Carter novel from much-loved crime writer Ann Granger.

Description

The eighth Campbell and Carter mystery from much-loved crime writer Ann Granger is sure to appeal to fans of her Mitchell and Markby mysteries, as well as to fans of Richard Osman's The Thursday Murder Club series.

When Jerry Harrison receives an unwelcome visitor at his remote Cotswold cottage one winter's night, the last thing he expects is to end up dead. But, next morning, his cleaners find him fatally stabbed and the police have a murder inquiry on their hands.

At first, Inspector Jess Campbell and Superintendent Ian Carter aren't sure of the victim's identity, but it's not long before a neighbour, Eleanor Holder, comes forward with her opinions on the deceased. Jerry Harrison was not a popular man in the village of Weston St Ambrose; his aunt's tragic death led to him inheriting her cottage and many of the locals still see him as an outsider.

With no witnesses coming forward and very little evidence to go on, Jess and Ian must dig deep to find the answers to this baffling case. But not before another villager is attacked and left for dead . . .

Praise for Ann Granger's crime novels:

'Characterisation, as ever with Granger, is sharp and astringent' The Times

'Her usual impeccable plotting is fully in place' Good Book Guide

'A clever and lively book' Margaret Yorke

'This engrossing story looks like the start of a highly enjoyable series' Scotsman

Sales Points

- Ann Granger's career has spanned over 30 years and her ever-popular cosy crime mysteries have sold over 2 million copies worldwide.
- Ann Granger's hugely popular crime novels, featuring Mitchell & Markby, Fran Varady and Campbell & Carter, have gained her international recognition and literary success.
- Set in the Cotswolds, Ann Granger's Campbell and Carter mysteries will undoubtedly appeal to fans of her hugely popular crime series featuring Mitchell and Markby, as well as to fans of Richard Osman's The Thursday Murder Club series.

Author Biography

Ann Granger has lived in cities all over the world, since for many years she worked in British embassies as far apart as Munich and Lusaka. She is now permanently based in Oxfordshire.

From the author of The Family at Number 11 comes the brand-new twisting and gripping domestic suspense that will have you turning the page long into the night. If you love Nelle Lamarr, Frieda McFadden and Daniel Hurst, you'll love The Night Nanny's Secret.

Description

<h3>YOUR NIGHTMARE IS ONLY JUST BEGINNING . . .</h3>

New mum Lucy couldn't be more in love with her twin baby boys, but with her husband Andrew's return to long hours at work, she's left to deal with the sleepless nights alone. When her best friend Nina suggests they hire a night nanny, Lucy jumps at the opportunity - much to the distaste of her overbearing mother-in-law.

But Evie is a natural with the boys and the extra sleep means the days are more manageable. Slowly but surely, Lucy is finding a way back to her old self and soon, she might even be ready to get back to running the gym she owns with Nina.

Then things begin to go missing, the doubts start creeping in and Lucy finds she can't keep track of the truth. Is it baby brain, or could there be a side to Evie she's not letting on? And when the future of Lucy's business is threatened, she starts down a path that might lead her to uncover some long-buried truths about their small town.

These secrets might tear her family apart - from the inside out.

From the author of The Family at Number 11 comes a brand-new twisting and gripping domestic suspense that will have you turning the page long into the night. If you love Nelle Lamarr, Frieda McFadden and Daniel Hurst, you'll love The Night Nanny's Secret.

<h3>Readers love Kathryn Whitfield's compulsive novels!</h3>

Sales Points

- Kathryn is a Curtis Brown Creative alumna and was longlisted for Agora's Lost the Plot Work in Progress competition in 2020. She was also accepted onto the Kate Nash Literary Agency BookCamp mentoring programme.
- The Night Nanny's Secret is a shockingly twisty, 'outsider looking in' psychological thriller that looks at what happens when you let someone into your home. In this way, it will appeal to readers of Nelle Lamarr, Frieda McFadden and Daniel Hurst.

Author Biography

Kathryn Whitfield works in the NHS and lives in Staffordshire with her husband and two young children. She started writing her debut psychological thriller, The Family at Number 11, during new-born naps whilst on maternity leave. She is a Curtis Brown Creative alumna and later won a place as a mentee at Kate Nash Literary Agency where she finished drafting her debut novel.

Glow of the Everflame

The second book in an irresistibly epic and angsty romantasy series

Penn Cole

Keynote

A slow-burn epic romantasy series from Booktok sensation Penn Cole, this is the second fiery instalment in the Kindred's Curse Saga, set in a world colonized by the gods and ruled over by the cruel Descended.

Description

This BookTok sensation is the first in a slow-burn, epic romantasy series following one woman who must risk everything to save her family - and all of mortalkind. Now with a never-before-seen bonus chapter!

The brighter the truth burns, the more it will reveal . . .

With the threat of war looming ever closer, Diem Bellator must now survive the next thirty days by forming a devil's bargain with her sworn enemies, the royal family of House Corbois. As she dives further into the world of the Descended elite, old prejudices are challenged, and new loyalties blur the line between friend and foe.

While Diem fights to save her people, the secrets her missing mother left behind become increasingly hard to ignore. And, caught between a familiar old flame and an intoxicating new spark, Diem must soon make an impossible choice.

War approaches and dangerous enemies lurk on all sides, but the most deadly battle that Diem faces may ultimately be the fight for her heart . . .

Readers can't get enough of Penn Cole!

'This story has captivated me . . . A fiery tapestry of love and what must be will be'

'Read. This. Book. Now.'

'A beautifully told story, gripping in every way and leaving wanting more!'

'Wow. Just wow. Everything you'd ever want in a fantasy book!'

'For anyone who loves ACOTAR and [Fourth Wing], you should 100% read this series. . . Chosen ones, magic, dragon creatures, enemy's to lovers, found family, banter, slow burn, royal politics, war. It has everything!'

Reviews

- 'If you liked The Guernsey Literary and Potato Peel Pie Society, or the Nicholas Sparks novels, you will devour THE IRRESISTIBLE BLUEBERRY BAKESHOP & CAFE. Mary Simses can write evocative detail that puts you right in the scene, with dialogue that always rings true' - James Patterson
- 'This charming, tender first novel emphasizes the power of simple pleasures, comfort food, and undeniable chemistry. Fans of the leads in the movies The Proposal and Sweet Home Alabama will recognize a kindred spirit in high-strung, perfectionist Ellen, and the novel's small-town setting will appeal to loyal readers of Mary Kay Andrews, Elin Hilderbrand, and Jan Karon. Simses' story of emotional discoveries, shifting priorities, and new beginnings is a delightful beach read' - Booklist
- 'Basic ingredients, well mixed-and good to the last crumb' - Good Housekeeping
- 'Like the tastiest piece of pie, THE IRRESISTIBLE BLUEBERRY BAKESHOP & CAFE is mostly sweet with a touch of tartness and has a richly constructed crust to contain all its ingredients.... Simses'...depictions of the charming qualities of small town life, the healing abilities of comfort food, and the redemptive power of love will win the hearts of readers, as will the subtle sprinkling of humor and intrigue. Fans of Nicholas Sparks, or even the romantic offerings of James Patterson, will approve' - John Valeri, Examiner.com

Author Biography

Mary Simses grew up in Connecticut and spent much of her life in the Northeast, where she attended college and law school. As a child she loved to write stories, design covers for them, and staple them into books. Later, careers in journalism and law took priority and creative writing slipped away, until she enrolled in an evening fiction writing class at a local university and was hooked again. Her short stories have appeared in a number of literary journals. Mary now lives in South Florida with her husband/law partner and their daughter.

The Last Letters from Villa Clara

A moving and sweeping story of love, betrayal and sacrifice

Sarah Steele

Keynote

The captivating new novel from USA Today bestselling author sweeps us from an Italy simmering on the brink of war through to 1960s London at a time of shadows and Russian spies, taking us on an extraordinary journey of love, courage and betrayal. Perfect for fans of Natasha Lester, Fiona Valpy and Santa Montefiore.

CAN THE SEARCH FOR A WARTIME SECRET UNLOCK HER FUTURE?

1939. Europe is on the brink of change and in the fear and chaos of pre-war Italy, a painting disappears and is never seen again.

1963. London is on the cusp of change in the swinging 60s. Nightclubs and exclusive parties are in their heyday, as are the art thieves of the East End underworld. But when a lowly boarding-house landlady attempts to take on the upper-crust establishment, and is accused of spying for the Russians, she can save only one thing - her reputation, or the love of her life.

1989. Phoebe Cato is on the verge of losing everything she cares about: her labour of love, the struggling Cato Museum that houses Bruce Cato's collection of masterful reproductions, and worse than that, her beloved uncle Bruce himself. With only months to live, Phoebe may not be able to save Bruce's life, but little does she know that he had planned on saving hers all along.

Following Bruce's final trail of clues, hidden in a series of paintings, Phoebe embarks on a journey to uncover a long-held family secret and a sweeping love story that encompassed the decades . . .

The moving and captivating new novel from the USA Today bestselling author of The Schoolteacher of Saint Michel sweeps us from an Italy simmering on the brink of war through to 1960s London at a time of shadows and Russian spies, taking us on an extraordinary journey of love, courage and betrayal. Perfect for fans of Natasha Lester, Fiona Valpy and Santa Montefiore.

Designs on You

Jaci Burton

Keynote

Sparks fly when an interior designer and a game designer cross paths, but they must learn if they can design a happily ever after in this heartfelt romantic comedy from New York Times bestselling author Jaci Burton.

Description

<h3>If you love Holly Martin, Sarah Morgan and Jill Shalvis, you'll love Jaci Burton!

'Always sexy, romantic and charming' JILL SHALVIS

'The characters leap off the page and the romance sparkles' Romantic Times

She can design the perfect forever home . . . but what about a forever love?

Single mum Natalie Parker is firmly focused on her newly resurrected career as a designer. No distractions. When her sister hires Natalie to design her brand-new home with boyfriend Linc, Natalie's delighted. Enter Linc's younger brother, video game designer Eugene Kennedy. He's smart, incredibly good-looking, and a shameless flirt. He's also younger than her, which makes him totally off-limits.

Eugene is captivated by Natalie's beauty, intelligence, and sense of humour. Pushing her buttons comes way too easy, and he can't get enough of how she throws it right back. Yet despite their instant chemistry, Natalie keeps trying to push him away - but Eugene never backs down from a challenge.

Soon Natalie is running out of reasons to keep Eugene at arm's length, and breaking all her own rules may just be the thing she needs...

Author Biography

Jaci Burton is a New York Times bestselling author who lives in Oklahoma with her husband and dogs. She has three grown children, who are all scattered around the country having lives of their own. A lover of sports, Jaci can often tell what season it is by what sport is being played. She watches entirely too much television, including an unhealthy amount of reality TV. When she isn't on deadline, Jaci can be found at her local casino, trying to become a millionaire (so far, no luck). She's a total romantic and loves a story with a happily ever after, which you'll find in all her books.

Man of Bones

From the author of The Times 'Thriller of the Year'

Ben Creed

Keynote

Winter, 1953. Along with Sergeant Lidia Gerashvili, and Major Nikitin, the interrogator who once cut off Rossel's fingers, Rossel sets off on the trail of a murderer whose crimes surpass those of even the deranged tsar Ivan the Terrible. A trail leading to a dark, hidden episode in Bolshevik history filled with unspeakable horrors.

Description

THE TIMES 'THRILLER OF THE YEAR' AND CWA GOLD DAGGER SHORTLISTED AUTHOR RETURNS!

'Conjures up Stalinist Russia with evocative detail and the dread and menace that permeate everyday life' Financial Times

'Utterly compelling, both in its propulsive plotting and the dark and dangerously relevant themes it explores' Jake Arnott

'You'll find yourself looking over your shoulder when you leave the house!' Trevor Wood

Winter 1953. Beneath a pitch-black Leningrad sky, two bodies lie near the towering statue of Lenin outside the Finland Station. 'Nothing sinister, here, just a simple hit and run,' an officer in the MGB secret police assures militia detective Revol Rossel. Now he knows it's murder.

Only recently released from a brutal Siberian labour camp and determined to find his missing sister at last, Rossel wants nothing to do with this new case. But his alcoholic, broken superior officer, Captain Lipukhin, seizes upon it as his salvation - a last chance to be a true Soviet hero.

Along with sharp-witted Senior Lieutenant Lidia Gerashvili, and Major Nikitin, the interrogator who once cut off Rossel's fingers, Rossel sets off on the trail of a murderer whose crimes surpass those of even the deranged tsar Ivan the Terrible. A trail leading to a dark, hidden episode in Bolshevik history filled with unspeakable horrors.

There is only one eyewitness - Vladimir Ilyich Ulyanov, better known as Lenin, whose giant right hand stretches out towards the frozen River Neva. Lenin, Rossel thinks, seems to be pointing at someone. But who?

PRAISE FOR BEN CREED

'Ben Creed has a genuine gift for conjuring up Stalin's Leningrad in all its beauty and misery' THE TIMES

'Reminded me of Gorky Park, only I liked this tense, complex thriller even better' JAMES PATTERSON

'Brilliantly orchestrated and totally engrossing' THE CRIME WRITERS' ASSOCIATION

'A worthy successor to Cruz Smith's Arkady Renko' FINANCIAL TIMES

'A fantastically tense atmosphere . . . A spine-tingling page-turner' SUN

Reunited at the Lakeside Cottage
Escape with this heart-warming and uplifting story of love, life and hope!

Erin Green

Keynote

Escape this winter with the new feel-good read from Erin Green!

Description

'A warm, funny, uplifting writer!' KATIE FFORDE

If you love Lucy Diamond, Phillipa Ashley, Sue Moorcroft and Holly Martin, you'll LOVE Erin Green's novels of love, life, hope and healing.

Welcome back to the Lakeside Cottage . . . a place to come together, or be driven further apart?

It's that week between Christmas and New Year, and sisters Kate and Selena, and their friend Paisley, are meeting for an all-girls mini-break - no men allowed. But Affie, Carlos and Joseph have a similar idea, involving a sports channel, plenty of beer, and absolutely no women.

Somehow, there's been a double booking.

Paisley just wants to escape her worries, to recharge and reset for the coming year. The last thing she needs is complications.

Kate, the elder sister, is a people pleaser, used to making things run smoothly for her CEO boss, but even she can't fix this, can she?

Selena, meanwhile, may have a hugely successful career and be about to turn thirty, but she's her own worst enemy, and, as per usual, this mess may well be her fault...

To make matters worse, Paisley and Joseph have history.

Can the six of them find a way to navigate nearly a week together? Can the past be left behind and a new future found?

Warm praise for Erin Green's heartfelt novels:

'An uplifting and wonderful story about the power of female friendships' Donna Ashcroft

'Thoroughly entertaining. The characters are warm and well drawn' Sue Roberts

'A lovely, heart-warming story . . . I was hooked!' Christina Courtenay

'A delightful tale of friendship, family and love' Jenni Keer

'⭐ ⭐ ⭐ ⭐ ⭐ What a lovely and uplifting read. I really really enjoyed it'

'⭐ ⭐ ⭐ ⭐ ⭐ A perfect heartwarming read which has provided a great escape'

'⭐ ⭐ ⭐ ⭐ ⭐ Loved this thoroughly feel good read!'

Don't miss the other Lakeside Cottage novels - Summer Dreams at the Lakeside Cottage, Christmas Wishes at the Lakeside Cottage and Retreat at the Lakeside Cottage.

And discover the uplifting Shetland series, beginning with From Shetland, With Love.

Invisible Strings

113 Poets Respond to the Songs of Taylor Swift

Kristie Frederick Daugherty

Keynote

An anthology of brand-new poems inspired by Taylor Swift songs, from a powerhouse group of contemporary poets, including former US Poet Laureates, Pulitzer Prize winners, internet fan favourites and cult bestsellers.

Description

An anthology of 113 original poems inspired by Taylor Swift songs, from a powerhouse group of contemporary poets - including Diane Seuss, Amanda Lovelace, Hollie McNish, Richard Siken, Ilya Kaminsky, Joy Harjo, Lang Leav, Paul Muldoon, Maggie Smith, Jane Hirshfield and Yusef Komunyakaa.

With a record-breaking four Grammy awards for Album of the Year, Taylor Swift's lyrics have been heard by millions around the world - clever, authentic, and elegantly written, to her fans these songs are a kind of modern poetry.

In Invisible Strings, poet, professor and dedicated Swiftie Kristie Frederick-Daugherty has brought together 113 new poems, each inspired by a particular Taylor Swift song.

Taking a cue from Taylor's love of clues and puzzles, test your knowledge of every era - from Fearless to folklore, Reputation to The Tortured Poets Department, vault tracks included - to match each poem to the song it is a response to.

For Swifties, this is a creative and affectionate reimagining of their favourite writer's culture-defining discography - with a chance to see these songs in a brand new way.

For poetry lovers, this one-of-a-kind anthology is an unparalleled collection of new work from some of the most lauded and exciting voices in contemporary poetry.

Angels Cry Sometimes Her world is torn apart, but love prevails

Josephine Cox

Keynote

An irresistible story of a woman whose quest to regain her happiness takes her through the darkness of grief and despair from No.1 bestselling writer Josephine Cox.

Description

Angels Cry Sometimes is a heartrending novel of discovering happiness again through heartbreak, grief and despair from the No. 1 Sunday Times bestselling storyteller Josephine Cox.

The marriage of Marcia and Curt Ratheter seemed idyllically happy. As much in love as on their wedding day, nothing could mar their joy. But one fateful day in 1931 brought Marcia's world tumbling about her ears and left her and her two daughters bereft.

Barty Bendall had always loved her, he said; and the girls needed a father. Marcia moved to Blackburn with him, where she tried to forget the past. Barty, though, sank into bad ways, tyrannizing the family. In particular he would vent his aggression on Polly, Curt and Marcia's first-born, blonde as an angel but afflicted since birth with an ominous shadow over her health.

Even in troubled times, lovely raven-haired Marcia was a fighter. But the news that Curt Ratheter had reappeared would render her the helpless prey of wildly conflicting emotions.

What readers are saying about Angels Cry Sometimes:

'All [Josephine Cox] books really engross me and Angels Cry Sometimes is no exception. Very moving'

'Enjoyable and realistic characters that we can all identify with'

'One of the best books I have read in a long time'

Author Biography

Josephine Cox was born in a cotton-mill house in Blackburn, one of ten children. At the age of sixteen, Josephine met and married her husband Ken, and had two sons. When the boys started school, she decided to go to college and eventually gained a place at Cambridge University. She was unable to take this up as it would have meant living away from home, but she went into teaching - and started to write her first full-length novel. Her strong, gritty stories are taken from the tapestry of life.

Don't Cry Alone

An utterly captivating saga exploring the strength of love

Josephine Cox

Keynote

Filled with heart and drama, No. 1 bestselling author Josephine Cox's Don't Cry Alone tells the story of Beth, a woman of rare courage and fortitude. But there is danger and heartbreak to be endured before she can find peace and happiness . . .

Description

 Beth is a woman of rare courage and fortitude, but there is danger and heartbreak to be endured before she can find peace and happiness...

Don't Cry Alone is an unforgettable saga from Josephine Cox, of the power of love, hope and jealousy. Perfect for fans of Rosie Goodwin and Cathy Sharp.

'Hailed quite rightly as a gifted writer in the tradition of Catherine Cookson' - Manchester Evening Post

Beth Ward and Tyler Blacklock share a love they know will last forever. But Beth's mother, Esther, is jealous of the girl and seizes an opportunity to be rid of her daughter. Banished in disgrace from the family home, Beth takes the northbound train and alights at Blackburn, friendless and alone.

On this day, Fortune smiles, for Beth is taken in by warm-hearted Maisie Armstrong, a widow with two children. Money is scarce, but love abounds in the cosy house on Larkhill, and Beth is content there to await the birth of her child. But she cannot forget Tyler, and is tormented by the belief that he has betrayed her.

 What readers are saying about Don't Cry Alone:

'Wonderful! Totally believable. Complex story of highs and lows, laughter and tears. Completely absorbing, it's an emotional roller coaster. I loved it'

'This is a story of heartache, caring, loss and coming together. A story that warms the heart, that turns out well, as good stories should, and [leaves you with] a smile'

'Kept me gripped throughout. I enjoyed the book immensely, an excellent love story with lots of twists and turns'

The Richard & Judy MILLION-COPY Sunday Times Number One bestseller, now also a major motion picture starring Cameron Diaz and Alec Baldwin

Description

THE MILLION-COPY BESTSELLER AND MAJOR MOTION PICTURE
'Emotionally riveting and will test your tear ducts to the limit' Daily Express

In all thirteen years of Anna's life, her parents have never given her a choice: she was born to be her sister Kate's bone marrow donor and she has always given Kate everything she needs.

But when Anna is told Kate needs a new kidney, she begins to question how much she should be prepared to do to save the older sibling she has always been defined by. So Anna makes a decision that will change their family forever - perhaps even fatally for the sister she loves.

From internationally bestselling author Jodi Picoult comes a masterpiece which asks us just how much we should do to care for the ones we love.

THE BOOK OF TWO WAYS, Jodi's stunning new novel about life, death and missed opportunities is available to pre-order now.

Author Biography

James Anderson (Author)

James and Paul Anderson are the duo behind the enormously successful slimming blog @twochubbycubs, which has over half a million online fans. They lost 18 stone between them and went on to share their journey with the world. Their tasty, easy recipes prove that it is possible to lose weight without sacrificing your soul and you can actually have a laugh whilst you're at it. Their first cookbook became an instant Sunday Times bestseller, an Irish bestseller and one of the most popular cookbooks of 2020, with over 3500 5* reviews. They are the authors of 3 Sunday Times bestselling cookbooks.

MORE ABOUT THE AUTHORS:

James is a rakish, slender Geordie dandy who occasionally deigns to write a recipe or a funny story for the blog, but who spends most of his time looking at the fluff in his belly-button and wondering where it all comes from. Paul is slightly younger, though you wouldn't know it to look at him - the stresses of being married to James have left him haunted and as pale as moonlit milk.

Paul is the chef and makes beautiful dishes from good, simple ingredients. He also makes a catastrophic mess in any room he's in for longer than a minute. Together they're the twochubbycubs, the slightly spherical pairing behind one of the UK's most successful slimming blogs. Through twochubbycubs, hundreds of thousands of people have discovered that diet food doesn't need to be dismal and slimming doesn't need to be a chore. They say, 'Together, we'll laugh ourselves thin. Or diet trying'.

Quicksilver

the utterly addictive enemies-to-lovers romantasy sensation

Callie Hart

Keynote

From USA TODAY bestselling author Callie Hart comes a brand new, highly addictive enemies-to-lovers romantasy with razor-sharp banter, heart-stopping action, and blistering hot romance that you won't be able to put down.

Description

 HIDDEN COVER FOIL DESIGN AND BEAUTIFUL ENDPAPERS AVAILABLE FOR A LIMITED TIME. PRE-ORDER YOURS NOW! ***

Do not touch the sword. Do not turn the key. Do not open the gate.

In the land of the unforgiving desert, there isn't much a girl wouldn't do for a glass of water.

Twenty-four-year-old Saeris Fane is good at keeping secrets. No one knows about the strange powers she possesses, or the fact that she has been picking pockets and stealing from the Undying Queen's reservoirs for as long as she can remember.

But a secret is like a knot. Sooner or later, it is bound to come undone.

When Saeris comes face-to-face with Death himself, she inadvertently reopens a gateway between realms and is transported to a land of ice and snow. The Fae have always been the stuff of myth, of legend, of nightmares...but it turns out they're real, and Saeris has landed herself right in the middle of a centuries-long conflict that might just get her killed.

The first of her kind to tread the frozen mountains of Yvelia in over a thousand years, Saeris mistakenly binds herself to Kingfisher, a handsome Fae warrior, who has secrets and nefarious agendas of his own. He will use her Alchemist's magic to protect his people, no matter what it costs him . . . or her.

Death has a name. It is Kingfisher of the Ajun Gate. His past is murky. His attitude stinks. And he's the only way Saeris is going to make it home.

Be careful of the deals you make, dear child. The devil is in the details . . .

Author Biography

Callie Hart is the author of the bestselling international phenomenon, Quicksilver, along with many other bestselling dark romance and dark academia titles. A British ex-pat now living abroad, Callie can most likely be found sequestered away in the corner of a library, fantasizing about exciting new realms and the brooding anti-heroes who occupy them.

She wouldn't think twice about striking a questionable bargain with a Fae warrior if the opportunity presented itself.

Red Rising Hodderscape Vault

Pierce Brown

Keynote

This new edition of RED RISING comes from the HODDERSCAPE VAULT . . . giving fans who missed out first time round a chance to own a beautiful hardback copy with brand new foil on the case.

Description

I am the Reaper and death is my shadow.

Celebrating 10 years of Red Rising! This Hodderscape Vault Edition features a re-designed cover, beautiful foil design under the jacket, and brand new bonus content by Pierce Brown.

THE FIRST BOOK IN THE NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING SERIES

Darrow is a Helldiver. A pioneer of Mars.

Born to slave beneath the earth so that one day, future generations might live above it.

He is a Red - humankind's lowest caste. But he has something the Golds - the ruthless ruling class - will never understand.

He has a wife he worships, a family who give him strength. He has love.

And when they take that from him, all that remains is revenge . . .

Pierce Brown's heart-pounding debut is the first book in a spectacular series that combines the drama of Game of Thrones with the epic scope of Star Wars.

READERS LOVE RED RISING

'A ridiculously good book with complex world-building, riveting characters, and a crazy sci-fi space school. What more could you want in a story?'

'What an intense, visceral, twisty story. There's a lot more of Lord of the Flies here than Hunger Games or Ender and it just builds and builds to a heck of a conclusion'

'This was such a clever beginning to this series!'

Sales Points

- VAULT EDITION: due to popular demand, we are bringing Red Rising back in hardback for a one-time only exclusive print run, with a new foil design on the board.
- New York Times bestselling author Pierce Brown is one of the most exciting voices in modern science fiction.
- Red Rising is a blend of the scope of Star Wars, the battle-school setting of Ender's Game, and the thrill of a Mars straight out of Bradbury.
- This edition marks the 10th anniversary of the publication of Red Rising, the first book in the hugely popular 7-book series.

The Order of Masks

Alina Bellchambers

Keynote

The Order of Masks is the first in a seductive, glittering fantasy duology, as two ambitious young women manage deadly court politics, determined to improve their lot in life - no matter the sacrifice.

Description

Infiltrate. Exploit. Destroy.

Mira dreams of a glittering future in the Ravalian Court. Training in secret, she intends to compete in the Trials: a deadly competition to join one of three magical Orders. But when her candidacy exposes her mother's dangerous past, they become her only salvation.

Princess Scarlett has spent her life on a knife edge: fighting to survive the deadly politics of court. When she meets Mira, she sees an opportunity to alter the balance of power . . . but only if she can keep her alive.

Caught between warring royal heirs, Mira's success depends on backing the right victor in a bloody bid for the throne. Navigating a shadowy world of magic, court intrigue, and forbidden romance, Mira and Scarlett must choose between love and ambition as they rise up to reshape their worlds.

Sales Points

- A luscious fantasy debut: perfect for readers who like tense, high-stakes plots, seductive court politics, forbidden romance, and confident, morally grey heroines
- The Order of Masks is a confident, commercial fantasy debut, full of twists, tropes, and games of power.

Reviews

- 'From page one, The Order of Masks grabbed me by the throat and never let go. Shocking. Unpredictable. Devastating. Characters you can never trust but desperately want to. A glittering dagger of a book that cuts as much as it awes' - Natalie Mae, author of The Kinder Poison trilogy
- 'A high-stakes, richly layered adventure filled with covert missions and moonlit trysts - this debut is as seductive and dangerous as the Ravalian Court where the story takes place.' - Lyndall Clipstone
- 'A thrilling debut from Alina Bellchambers, with a vividly realised, cut-throat world of court intrigue, secrets and morally grey characters fighting to survive. A fantastic fast-paced read with a brilliant plot that keeps you guessing!' - Vanessa Len

Author Biography

Alina Bellchambers grew up in her family's bookstore and spent a childhood immersed in fantastical worlds. She now writes twisty thrillers and dark fantasies that reflect her love of fierce protagonists, villainous romances and moral complexities. Alina has a university degree in psychology and writes on a forty-acre hobby farm in the picturesque Adelaide Hills of South Australia. When not typing in her study and drinking copious amounts of tea, Alina enjoys hiking with her feisty dog, connecting with her local community and travelling abroad. The Order of Masks is her debut novel.

Seven Days

the instant Sunday Times bestseller: a gripping, high-octane crime thriller for 2024 - can Alice save her father from death row?

Robert Rutherford

Keynote

A high-octane thriller with global appeal about a woman who has seven days to decide whether to save her father from death row after he is accused of murder.

Description

Your father is on death row. You have seven days to save him. But do you want to?

Alice knows her father is guilty of many things.

He's guilty of abandoning her.

He's guilty of being unfaithful to her mother.

But is he guilty of murder?

Now on Death Row, he has seven days to live.

Some people want him released.

Others will kill to keep him just where he is.

Alice has only one chance to save him. But should she?

Sales Points

- Global appeal - the novel races between Northern England, the US, France and Europe in a rollercoaster ride. We have World Rights excluding US and Canada.
- Northern writer - Rob is based up in Newcastle and is passionate about championing regional and working class voices.
- Strong hook - a daughter has seven days to save her father from death row. This explores the father-daughter relationship with real emotion and nuance - a subject not seen as often in commercial fiction.

Reviews

- 'A cracking read. Great tension, good characterisation and a really interesting twist on a serial killer narrative. A five-star read' - Harriet Tyce, author of Blood Orange
- 'Robert Rutherford hasn't just dipped his toes into the thriller genre; he's dived in headfirst. And the result is spectacular - a genuine edge-of-your-seat, thrill-a-minute adrenaline rush. Highly recommended.' - M.W. Craven, author of The Botanist
- 'Loved SEVEN DAYS. With a father on death row Alice is tight on time. This was as pacy as it gets, racing through the North East, Paris and New York. Tightly plotted, sharp on character, and huge in scale.' - Rachel Blok, author of The Fall
- 'I absolutely rattled through this impressive, polished thriller from Robert Rutherford. One thing I can promise you: it won't take you seven days to read it! Seven hours, more like!' - Trevor Wood, author of Dead End Street

Author Biography

Robert Rutherford is a founding member of the Northern Crime Syndicate crime writers' group and has been shortlisted twice for the CWA Short Story Daggers. This is his debut thriller. He lives in Newcastle with his family.

A HOT enemies-to-lovers summer college romance!

Jennifer L. Armentrout

Keynote

From the #1 New York Times and #1 International Bestselling author Jennifer L. Armentrout, comes a Summer standalone featuring steamy enemies-to-lovers college romances!

Description

For once, I wanted to be something more than just a hookup. I wanted to be... worth more.

Most days, Andrea Walters doesn't know whether she wants to kiss Tanner Hammond or punch him in the gut. He's been hot since the day they met, with insane bedroom eyes and that firefighter's body of his - but he's also a major player, and the two of them have never been able to get along for more than a handful of minutes at a time.

Tanner knows he and Andrea are infamous for their love/hate relationship, but lately, he's found himself wanting more love than hate from her. He wants her, period. But the more he gets to know the girl behind the fiery mask, the more it becomes obvious that Andrea has a problem. She's teetering on the edge of disaster, and every time he tries to catch her, she slips through his fingers.

Between her drinking and the demons beneath it, Andrea's life is spiralling out of control, and it doesn't matter that Tanner wants to save her - because when everything falls apart and she's speeding toward rock bottom, only she can save herself.

WHAT TO EXPECT? Friends-to-lovers, college romance, steamy, bad boy gets the good girl, duel POV, forced proximity, guilty pleasure!

A Pragmatic Approach to Chronic Disorganisation and Hoarding Using the DESIRE Method

Linda Fay

Keynote

A practical guide for professionals supporting people affected by extreme clutter and hoarding.

Description

An estimated 1 in every 40 adults has experienced problematic hoarding, yet there are few resources dedicated to understanding and supporting people with Hoarding Disorder.

This book gives practitioners much-needed practical guidance on how to help those affected by extreme clutter, chronic disorganisation, and hoarding. Encouraging a person-centred approach and featuring case studies throughout, it introduces the DESIRE method, incorporating research, evidence-based therapies, and strategies for appraising hoarding situations and deciding on the best course of action. Through understanding individual cases, co-morbid health conditions, vulnerabilities, cognitive functioning, and the home environment, this book offers a blueprint of practical techniques for helping individuals to make sustained change and lead healthier lives.

Sales Points

- Gap in the market: there are very few practical books on the market for professionals to understand hoarding behaviours and support those with Hoarding Disorder.
- Author profile: the author is well-placed to reach the audience for this book as Founding Director of Life-Pod CIC and the Hoarding Academy. She has trained over 3000 professionals to date.
- Common problem: an estimated 1 in 40 adults has experienced problematic hoarding.
- Well-timed publication: Publication aligns with Hoarding Awareness Week and Life-Pod's international hoarding conference.
- Potential course adoption in social work, housing and professional organising.

Author Biography

Linda Fay is the Founding Director of Hoarding Academy helping people affected by hoarding disorder and other conditions that result in extreme clutter and disorganisation. Hoarding Academy provides a certified learning pathway for professional practice in hoarding disorder. Linda is the first UK hoarding practitioner to hold Specialist Certificates in Chronic Disorganisation and Hoarding Disorder from the Institute of Challenging Disorganisation, USA.

Social Emotional Arts Activities for Teachers and Students to Use in the Classroom

Dr. Jessica Bianchi and Amber L. Cromwell

Keynote

A treasure trove of creative activities to support social and emotional learning in children.

Description

Social and emotional skills are a vital part of children's development, and the classroom can be a key space for supporting their emotional growth. Between worry, navigating friendships, self-expression and self-esteem, teachers often need to support children's mental health and help them find tools to process their emotions in positive ways.

The activities in this book are designed in line with art therapy techniques to help young children develop their social and emotional skills to become happy, regulated adults. Each chapter focuses on one of the five social and emotional learning domains: self-awareness, self-management, social awareness, relationship skills, and responsible decision-making. Activities are introduced with clear, child-friendly explanations of what each term means, why it's important, and how to make it a part of day-to-day life.

Sales Points

- Social Emotional Learning is a rapidly-growing focus in American Schools - school district spending on SEL grew 45% between the 2019-2020 and the 2020-2021 school years
- The American Rescue Plan Act, which allocated $123 billion toward K-12 education, could provide substantial funding for SEL programmes in schools
- The authors run training sessions and workshops with teachers, community liaisons, counsellors etc., so have a direct line to the current needs of the education community
- The dip-in format will make it a flexible resource for teachers who want to brush up their skills, as well as those who are new to SEL
- Both authors are licensed art therapists, so the exercises have a strong theoretical basis

Author Biography

Dr. Jessica Bianchi is a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist, Board Certified Art therapist, Assistant Professor at Loyola Marymount University, and the Clinical Director of the Helen B. Landgarten Art Therapy Clinic. Having received her doctorate in Educational Leadership and Social Justice as well as her master's in Marital and Family Therapy/Art Therapy from LMU, Jessica has developed a specialized skill set that integrates concepts from art therapy and education as a way to help communities access needed mental health services. Jessica thrives on collaboration and has facilitated therapeutic arts services in numerous contexts including residential group homes, outpatient clinics, K-high school settings, medical centers, and federal correctional institutions as well as providing consultation and professional development on the topics of art therapy, trauma informed educational practices, and arts and social emotional competencies. Additionally, Jessica also provides clinical services in her Echo Park private practice with adults, youth and couples experiencing anxiety, depression, life transitions, grief, and trauma.

Amber L Cromwell, LMFT ATR-BC is a board certified art therapist, arts educator and mental health advocate. Amber has a passion for arts equity and has collaborated with several non-profits to increase engagement with the healing arts. She recently followed her passions in advocacy to the realm of consulting with school districts to increase social and emotional learning by way of creative expression. Amber honed her clinical skills and her alliance to a social justice perspective working in a variety of settings including youth and teachers in LA Unified School District, community outpatient, Cedars-Sinai Medical Center, residential treatment, and programs for incarcerated individuals and impacted friends and family. Amber is clinical supervisor in the Helen B. Landgarten Art Therapy Clinic as well as the director of the clinic's Summer Arts Workshop. Amber maintains an online practice where she specializes in developing skills for emotional dysregulation.

What You Really Want to Know About Working with Dementia Real Issues and Expert Advice

Karen Harrison Denning, Hilda Hayo and Amy Pepper

Keynote

The questions and concerns of real clinicians inform this 'how-to guide' for supporting people with an additional diagnosis of dementia.

Description

Dementia can add a layer of complexity to health and social care, as problems with communication and understanding can make it more difficult to diagnose and treat other conditions and illnesses. For many people living with dementia, generalist clinicians in primary care will be their first port of call. This FAQ guide examines issues experienced by these clinicians during their daily practice, and offers expert advice on how to support people living with dementia.

Each section includes a case study to illustrate a common concern, followed by analysis of the underlying issues and suggested approaches or solutions from an experienced Admiral Nurse. Topics include distressed behaviours at home and in clinical settings, managing fall risk, supporting older carers or those with disabilities, and advance care planning.

This evidence-based guide sets out skills and approaches for all health professionals to provide excellent person-centred care for people living with dementia.

Sales Points

- Most dementia books are aimed at specialists and focused on the condition - this book helps generalist clinicians to support clients who also have dementia
- Person-centred care and disability-conscious approaches improve patient-clinician relationships and patient cooperation
- The book includes input from a wide range of professionals, including podiatrists, social workers and GPs, and each chapter includes commentary and advice from an Admiral Nurse (dementia specialist)
- The editors are well-known in the dementia field - Hilda Hayo is the Chief Admiral Nurse and CEO of Dementia UK, Karen Harrison Denning is the head of research and publications for Dementia UK
- Chapter topics are based on clinician feedback, so they look at the issues that practitioners actually struggle with

Author Biography

Dr Karen Harrison Denning has over 45 years' experience in dementia care. After completing her PhD she became head of research at Dementia UK. She was a committee member on both NICE dementia guidelines.

Dr Hilda Hayo has over 43 years' experience in dementia care and has held various senior posts including the last 10 years as Chief Admiral Nurse and CEO of Dementia UK.

Amy Pepper is a mental health nurse with 20 years' experience in dementia care. She currently works as an Admiral Nurse with the Research and Publications Team at Dementia UK.

The Complete Taping Handbook Biomechanical, Sports Rigid Taping and K-Taping for Manual Therapists

Ben Calvert-Painter and Tim Allardyce

Keynote

This is the first book to cover all three types of manual therapy and sports taping: sports rigid tape, k-tape, and biomechanical tape. It also includes demonstrative photographs, full instructions on best practice, and how and when to use each type of taping.

Description

This is the first book to cover all three types of taping: sports rigid tape, k-tape, and biomechanical tape.

Taping can be used as an excellent companion to standard treatments and within sport. Each tape has its own unique function and action that can aid patients at different stages of recovery.

The Complete Taping Handbook is a practical, clear guide to understanding taping, its benefits, best practice, and how to use particular types. It's an essential resource for manual therapists, including physiotherapists, osteopaths, chiropractors, sports therapists, and students.

Use this pioneering text to elevate your practice and unveil the intricacies of taping.

Sales Points

- Unique - This is the first book to cover all three types of taping. Most books cover one or two types only.
- Author experience - Ben Calvert-Painter has been running strapping and taping courses for many years. He has worked with American football, professional football, and rugby teams.
- Diverse audience - The information in this book is valuable to a wide range of professionals, from chiropractors to sports therapists.

Reviews

- 'This is a brilliant resource for physiotherapists, osteopaths and sports therapists. I've not seen another book which brings together the three types of tape. The instructions and images are very clear and easy to follow.' - Chris Eggleton, Specialist MSK & Sports Physiotherapist, Lead FCP & Advanced Practice Physiotherapist, EPUT
- 'The Complete Taping Handbook makes kinesiology tape simple, easy to learn and effective. With clear instructions and practical tips, it's perfect for both beginner and experienced practitioners.' - Alan Zaia, M.Ost, Founder & CEO of Osteohustle
- 'Ben has created the perfect reference and learning tool which has allowed my team to be able to add a further stage of support throughout the injury rehabilitation process. It will give any clinician the confidence to tape a patient effectively.' - Jason Clifford, Managing Director, Muscle Injury Clinic Ltd.

Resolving Distress in Dementia A Person-Centred Approach for Clinical Settings

Jo James, Ruby Fitzhenry and Rachel Thompson

Keynote

A practical, compassionate guide to understanding why people with dementia become distressed in clinical settings, how to respond when it happens, and how to reduce problems in the future.

Description

GP surgeries, outpatient clinics, and hospitals can be difficult for people with dementia, as physical and emotional discomfort can build up and become overwhelming. This book invites healthcare workers to examine the root causes of distress for people with dementia in clinical settings, and offers ways to resolve incidents without the need for restraint or sedation. It also suggests strategies for reflection after incidents and forward planning, to support patients and staff and reduce the frequency of difficult interactions.

Each chapter includes illustrative case studies to bring key concepts and dilemmas to life, and is supported by analysis and practical advice rooted in the authors' extensive experience in dementia care.

This guide helps healthcare professionals to understand why people with dementia may become distressed in a clinical setting, and gives them the tools to not only resolve incidents, but create a person-centred, supportive environment to reduce future distress.

Sales Points

- Managing distress is quality statement 6 on the NICE quality standards for dementia, which set out priority areas for quality improvement in health and social care.
- Understanding the root causes of distressed behaviour (e.g. physical pain, communication difficulties, discomfort in a clinical setting) can reduce incidences of inappropriate sedation and restraint.
- The authors run regular training sessions for healthcare workers and will promote the book internally at Imperial College (10,000 staff members), through the RCN Older People's Forum (approx. 11,500 members), and to affiliated libraries.
- The authors all have extensive experience supporting people with dementia in a variety of settings - advice in the book is reliable and relevant to practitioners.
- The combination of physical health problems and emotional discomfort in clinical settings can be particularly difficult for people with dementia, but is poorly understood as a cause of distressed behaviour.

Author Biography

Jo James (Author)

Jo James is a registered nurse with over 35 years' experience in acute hospital care and currently works as a consultant nurse for dementia and delirium at Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust.

Ruby Fitzhenry (Author)

Ruby Fitzhenry is an RMN with a background working in inpatient dementia services, mental health forensic services and Parkinson's disease and dementia research. Ruby currently works as a dementia clinical nurse specialist supporting inpatients in acute hospitals.

Rachel Thompson (Author)

At the time of writing, Rachel Thompson was a Dementia Clinical Nurse Specialist with a background in intensive care. Prior to nursing, she worked as a dementia adviser in the community. She is passionate about reducing the stigma surrounding long-term conditions and helping people live well.

Mel Tumongha (Contributor)

Mel Tumongha worked as a registered nurse in the Philippines for 12 years before moving to the UK where she has worked as a staff nurse on a medicine for the elderly ward and as a dementia clinical nurse specialist at Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust.

Market

Predominantly aimed at healthcare staff, but could be used by a family member/informal carer as well. It would be of particular relevance to hospital, clinic and care home staff to use as a resource when a client is unwell.

The Last Tsar The Abdication of Nicholas II and the Fall of the Romanovs

Tsuyoshi Hasegawa
Keynote

The definitive story behind the self-destruction of the autocratic Romanov dynasty, by the world's foremost expert.

Description

The definitive story behind the self-destruction of the autocratic Romanov dynasty, by the world's foremost expert.

When Tsar Nicholas II fell from power in 1917, Imperial Russia faced a series of overlapping crises, from war to social unrest. Though Nicholas's life is often described as tragic, it was not fate that doomed the Romanovs - it was poor leadership and a blinkered faith in autocracy.

Based on a trove of new archival discoveries, The Last Tsar narrates how Nicholas's resistance to reform doomed the monarchy. Encompassing the captivating personalities of the era, it untangles the struggles between the increasingly isolated Nicholas and Alexandra and the factions of scheming nobles, ruthless legislators, and pragmatic generals who sought to stabilize the restive Russian empire either with the Tsar or without him. By rejecting compromise, Nicholas undermined his supporters at crucial moments. His blunders cleared the way for all-out civil war and the eventual rise of the Soviet Union.

Definitive and engrossing, The Last Tsar uncovers how Nicholas II stumbled into revolution, taking his family, the Romanov dynasty, and the whole Russian Empire down with him.

Sales Points

- NEW RESEARCH: This book is based on new discoveries in archives that only became accessible following the fall of the Soviet Union, including handwritten notes written by figures who were in the room with Nicholas during the abdication crisis.
- WILDLY POPULAR SUBJECT: The lives and fortunes of the Romanov family and their milieu have been the basis for several strong-selling books in recent years, including Helen Rappaport's The Romanov Sisters (93K sales across formats) and The Race to Save the Romanovs (17K sales), Simon Sebag Montefiore's The Romanovs (91K sales), and Douglas Smith's Rasputin (23K sales).
- GREAT PRAISE: Hasegawa has written multiple widely admired books on aspects of Russian history. Crime and Punishment in the Russian Revolution was called 'innovative' by the Wall Street Journal and 'compelling' by Foreign Affairs, and in its review the New York Times Book Review singled Hasegawa out as 'one of our leading historians of the February Revolution.'

Reviews

- 'The capstone to a brilliant career, The Last Tsar is certain to become the definitive work on the chaotic, earth-shattering demise of the Romanov destiny. No historian before has dissected these tumultuous days with such clarity, precision, and insight' - Douglas Smith, author of RASPUTIN
- 'A terrific account of the February 1917 Revolution in Russia that knocks down many of the pillars of our usual interpretations. Elegantly written and magisterially researched' - Robert Service, author of A HISTORY OF MODERN RUSSIA
- 'An intimate and highly absorbing account of Russia's last hereditary autocrat. It is likely to be the definitive one for many years to come. From the cult surrounding Rasputin to the tense minute-by-minute plotting of the generals, Duma politicians, aristocrats, and the tsar himself, The Last Tsar brilliantly conveys the messy reality of imperial power coming apart at the seams' - Lewis Siegelbaum, Emeritus Professor, Michigan State University
- 'Hasegawa's masterful book is like a slow-motion picture of Russia approaching the edge. Yet only the weakness, inaction and stupidity of the last Tsar, as well as the stunning recklessness of the Russian elites, pushed the empire into the breach. A chilling lesson on how the ineptness of one man, and the opportunism of many, can pull down not only an outdated regime, but the entire temple of state, law, and civil society' - Vladislav Zubok, author of COLLAPSE

Paper Cage

The award-winning New Zealand small-town mystery

Tom Baragwanath

Keynote

The prize-winning literary crime debut from young New Zealand novelist Tom Baragwanath.

Description

Shortlisted for Ngaio Marsh Awards 2023
Shortlisted for The Ned Kelly Awards 2023

'Tom Baragwanath's provocative first novel is riveting and shocking' The Times

'[A] magnetic debut . . . breathtakingly compelling' Daily Mail

Masterton, New Zealand may be a small town, but its residents are certainly not united. Old resentments and the simmering tensions of race and culture divide the Maori and white inhabitants, with everyone keeping to their own patch of turf. But when local children start to go missing, vanishing between the cracks, accusations are hurled, and community relations reach boiling point.

Caught in the middle is Lorraine Henry. She works as a lowly records clerk at the police station amongst towering piles of paperwork, quietly making connections and remembering things that the cops would rather forget. Solving cases is not part of her job, but when her great-nephew is the next to disappear, she must put her skills to the test as she is called in to help, all before time runs out for the children.

Both a nail-biting thriller and a beautifully written, acutely observed portrait of a community in crisis, Paper Cage is the award-winning debut from young New Zealand novelist Tom Baragwanath.

'An astonishing debut [with] a wonderfully flawed central character . . . Such a standout novel' James Oswald author of All That Lives

'This literary thriller heralds the arrival of an exciting new voice in New Zealand storytelling' Fiona Sussman, author of The Doctor's Wife

'Tom Baragwanath has mastered the craft of literary crime' Age

Sales Points

- Perfect for fans of deeply atmospheric literary crime novels by the likes of antipodean writers Jane Harper, Chris Hammer and Fiona Sussman plus British names Ann Cleeves, Sarah Hilary and William Shaw.
- Introducing memorable series character Lorraine Henry, a wonderful older female protagonist, whose personal ties span both sides of a small-town community conflict.
- Author Tom Baragwanath is originally from New Zealand but lives in Paris. He is available for events and will be attending UK crime festivals in 2023, to help raise the profile of PAPER CAGE.
- PAPER CAGE won the Michael Gifkins Prize for unpublished writers (2021) and is longlisted for the Ngaio Marsh Award 2023, following its publication in Australia and New Zealand.

Reviews

- 'Baragwanath's debut is both social novel and thriller . . . Just the kind of dark, disturbing, gritty, and unusual treat thriller lovers are looking for' - Kirkus
- 'A beautifully drawn literary thriller' - Lisa Howells, Heat ****
- 'Tenderness and violence are always intersecting in Paper Cage . . . In this haunting, finely wrought book, Baragwanath illuminates the extraordinary strength of an ordinary woman' - Air Mail
- 'Lorraine Henry is a refreshingly different crime fiction protagonist' - Shelley Burr, author of WAKE

Author Biography

Tom Baragwanath is a writer originally from New Zealand, currently living in Paris. His debut novel Paper Cage won the 2021 Michael Gifkins prize, and was released in Australia and New Zealand by Text Publishing. Between pastries, Tom is working on his next novel.

Half-Arse Human

How to live better without burning out

Leena Norms

Keynote

Self-help for humans, not superhumans

Description

"This is the only self-help book that will tell you to give up. Except . . . you don't need to give up, do you? Because you didn't start.

Me either."

Leena Norms is a half-arser. A shave-one-legger. A rinse-the-plates-and-tell-herself-any-residual-dirt-will-improve-her-immune-system-er. And yet, she is determined to live better, build a career, strengthen her relationships, be good to her body, sort out her wardrobe, find meaningful hobbies, act on her ethics, and live a full, passionate, varied life.

And it's possible. Half-Arse Human will show you to harness the power of considered chaos and upgrade the parts of your life that really matter, without expending more than you have to give. Trying to be superhuman is out - being a half-arse human is in. Find out why living a life of slap-dash isn't as shameful as it seems; in fact, it might be the key to living the life you've always wanted. In a world of high-flyers, let's at least get you in the air.

Sales Points

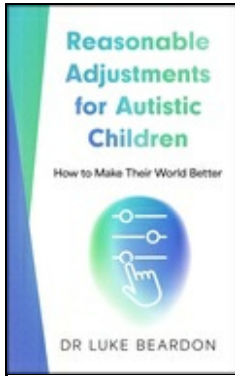

- The rightful successor to Sarah Knight - Leena has amassed a dedicated youtube (23 million views and counting) and Substack/Patreon following who love her for her realness and humility
- Built in marketing campaign - Leena will produce 'Half arse' video content running up to and beyond publication, and she has brilliant links with bookshops and book bloggers already
- On-trend 'dirty wellness' - we're fed up of giving 110%, and Leena has already had great publicity from coining Half-Arse Veganism, and there will be lots more to come in January

Author Biography

Leena Norms is a poet, vlogger and presenter. She has amassed over 24 million views on her YouTube channel and was named Book Vlogger of the Year by London Book Fair in 2020.

Leena has been named an official YouTube Creator for Change for her online campaigning and has collaborated with the European Commission, Royal Historic Palaces, the U.S. Embassy London, NHS, the Man Booker Prize, Vice and BBC 3. Leena has had her work featured in Cosmopolitan, Grazia, Refinery 29 and many more.

In 2022 Leena published her debut poetry collection 'Bargain Bin Rom-Com' (Burning Eye Books).

Reasonable Adjustments for Autistic Children How to Make Their World Better

Luke Beardon
Keynote

What does your autistic child need at home, at school, and in the world to flourish - and how can you make it happen?

Description

Autism acceptance has led to - at least, at surface level - an increased understanding of what autistic children need, and of what they find difficult to cope with. But is the world really making the kind of adjustments that would see your child truly thrive?

In Reasonable Adjustments for Autistic Children acclaimed and much-loved author and expert Dr Luke Beardon sets out the full scope of what he sees as the essential adjustments we need to make to our homes, our schools and the wider world in order to allow our autistic young people to reach their full potential and be genuinely comfortable in each and every environment.

From school uniform to train journeys and playdates, from dentists' surgeries to holiday resorts, Luke's book offers practical measures for adapting every environment or sensory situation.

Absolutely essential reading for every parent of an autistic child, family member, caregiver, teacher or health and social care worker, this is a long-overdue book that has the potential to change the world for neurodiverse children, and for the children of generations to come.

Sales Points

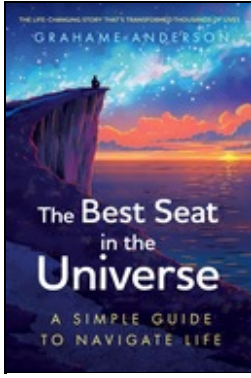

- Nearly 100,000 copies of Luke Beardon's books sold since 2019
- Author is leading light in the field of autism research and features regularly in the media, including recent appearances on BBC Sheffield, Listening Project (R4), You and Yours (R4), the Independent, the Guardian, the Daily Mail.
- He writes an acclaimed/award-winning blog on autism and autism research
- Luke Beardon recently featured on Chris Packham's BBC1 documentary, Inside Our Autistic Minds.

Reviews

- 'At last - a book that looks at the big picture regarding reasonable adjustments for autistic children. Luke writes with profound understanding and with a clarity that cuts through ignorance, and makes practical, feasible suggestions that challenge the discrimination that our children face. This book is quite simply a guidebook for happier, healthier autistic adults in a generation's time.' - Dr Clare Lawrence, Associate Professor, Participatory Autism Research

Author Biography

Dr Luke Beardon is Senior Lecturer in Autism at Sheffield Hallam University. He has published widely on autism and is renowned and respected for his uniquely inclusive, celebratory approach to helping autistic people thrive in a neurotypical world. He works with government authorities to develop services and model best practice, in addition to being part of a research team, and has spoken at many national and international conferences on a variety of autism-related topics. He has won several awards for his work, including the National Autistic Society's Autism Professionals Award for achievement in 2016, and has won the Autism Hero Awards in two categories, including for Lifetime Achievement.

Good with Money

Reprogramme Your Spending Habits and Take Control of Your Money

Emma Edwards

Keynote

An accessible, shame-free and deeply practical guide to reprogramming your spending habits and taking control of your money - from financial behaviour expert Emma Edwards, aka The Broke Generation.

Description

Have you ever avoided looking at your banking app after a big night out? Placed an online order during a late-night doomscroll? Felt helpless when your new budget simply failed to stick, despite your best intentions?

If that sounds familiar, this is the book for you.

In the age of smartphones and social media, we're surrounded by an endless stream of stuff we could buy, not to mention social conditioning around what makes us happy, as well as fast fashion, algorithmic advertising and 'where did you get that?' culture.

Financial behaviour expert Emma Edwards will help you unpack the reasons you're so emotionally tangled with your money (spoiler: it's absolutely not your fault) and look at what might be keeping you stuck. She'll teach you to reclaim your decision-making, deep-dive into your beliefs, identity and habits, and come out the other side feeling 'good with money'.

With a step-by-step guide to creating a money management system that actually works, Good With Money will change the way you think about budgeting, consumption and yourself, and put you back in the driver's seat of your own financial future.

Sales Points

- MAKE 2025 THE YEAR YOU BECOME 'GOOD WITH MONEY': perfect for readers who want a deep-dive into their spending habits, as well as practical, actionable advice to kick-start their New Year New You finances.
- AN AUTHOR WITH UNIQUE EXPERTISE: Financial Psychology and Behavioural Finance - Emma's area of expertise - is an emerging field that examines the emotional, social and behavioural sides of money. This book is practical, but it isn't just about understanding how you spend your money - it's about understanding the complex reasons why you spend your money.
- AUTHOR WITH AN ENGAGED PLATFORM: Emma Edwards is a savvy and hard-working social media user with an engaged (female, millennial) audience of 84K - around a third of which are based in the UK.

Author Biography

Emma Edwards is the founder of The Broke Generation (<https://thebrokegeneration.com>) and a copywriter, content creator, podcaster and Certified Financial Behaviour Specialist®. While working as a copywriter in her twenties, Emma turned her own finances around and began creating content to help others do the same. Passionate about the emotional, psychological and behavioural sides of money, she undertook graduate study in the emerging field of Financial Psychology and Behavioural Finance to continue exploring the complex relationship we have with money, with the aim of helping more people change their money habits from the inside. Emma grew up in the UK and worked in London after graduating Bournemouth University, before settling in Australia about a decade ago.

Market

Millennial women concerned about their financial prospects and eager to understand not just how they spend their money, but why they spend their money.

Fitness Without Limits

Training to break through obstacles, live without fear, and find a better you

Ben Mudge

Keynote

Inspiring first fitness book from remarkable trainer and influencer Ben Mudge, the Compassionate Coach, about how to break through obstacles in training and in life.

Description

We all imagine our own limits. Here, the Compassionate Coach Ben Mudge shows even the least experienced of us how to identify those barriers - and smash through them.

Diagnosed with cystic fibrosis, Ben was told he could be dead before his twenties and faced a short and sedentary life. Refusing to give in, Ben reinvented himself through fitness. Via a holistic training regime, Ben transformed himself into someone who, instead of seeing his limits, could say 'Yes I can.' Now you can do the same.

PART ONE - PILLARS

Using Ben's four-pillar approach - Sleep; Nutrition; Mental Health; Movement - you will understand how each of these interact to create a powerful fitness base.

PART TWO - PRINCIPLES

Learn the foundational fitness principle of putting together a workout programme and understand ideas of flexible thinking, whether in the gym or at home.

PART THREE - PROGRAMME

Use a full, easy-to-select series of exercises to put together your own custom training programme to break through your limits.

Inspiring, entertaining and most of all life-transforming, this is THE must-have training book for 2025.

Sales Points

- INFLUENCER CREDENTIALS - Ben has growing social platform: 120k Instagram; 33k Facebook; YouTube 7.2k subscribers; TikTok 6.8k followers, 49k likes. The marketing and publicity around this book will expand that hugely.
- MEDIA PROFILE - The media is already highly engaged with Ben, with pieces from the Daily Mail, Independent and others in the past, a Men's Fitness cover, and a Channel 4 YouTube film that's been viewed more than 600,000 times.
- INCREDIBLE PUBLICITY STORY - Ben's cystic fibrosis story makes him unique in the fitness world, and eminently relatable - he absolutely sees himself as an everyman.
- STUNNING PACKAGE - A beautiful, full-colour book complete with an extensive programme of exercises, illustrated to allow readers to build their own training regime.
- PROVEN MARKET - Sphere is publishing Ben Mudge at a similar stage and platform to Ross Edgley, whose first book The World's Fittest Book sold 230k copies across formats. Other books in this area include Frederic Delavier's Strength Training Academy (54k TCM) and James Haskell's Perfect Fit (22k TCM)

Author Biography

Ben Mudge is an online coach known for sharing his inspirational journey with cystic fibrosis, a genetic disorder that primarily affects the lungs. He is passionate about helping others to lead healthy and active lives both physically and mentally. He does this through his social media presence with his positive attitude, resilience, and commitment to making the best out of any challenge.

The Mercy Chair

M W Craven

Keynote

A dark and twisted crime novel, this is the eagerly anticipated follow up to The Botanist.

Description

'Macabre and wry' Telegraph

'Mesmerising, macabre and magnificent. The Mercy Chair is truly terrifying, laugh-out-loud funny, and impossibly clever. Poe and Tilly are unstoppable' Chris Whitaker

'Washington Poe is a brilliant creation, from one of the finest and most inventive crime writers of today' Peter James

Are you sitting comfortably? Then I'll begin . . .

Washington Poe has a story to tell.

And he needs you to listen.

You'll hear how it started with the robber birds. Crows. Dozens of them. Enough for a murder . . .

He'll tell you about a man who was tied to a tree and stoned to death, a man who had tattooed himself with a code so obscure, even the gifted analyst Tilly Bradshaw struggled to break it. He'll tell you how the man's murder was connected to a tragedy that happened fifteen years earlier when a young girl massacred her entire family.

And finally, he'll tell you about the mercy chair. And why people would rather kill themselves than talk about it . . .

Poe hopes you've been paying attention. Because in this story, nothing is as it seems . . .

'Craven renders the darkness of the human condition with immense skill, ratcheting the tension to a nails-on-chalkboard pitch. Don't turn out the lights.' Vaseem Khan

MORE PRAISE FOR MW CRAVEN:

'The kind of novel that inspired me to write fiction in the first place. A guaranteed great time.' Chris Brookmyre

'Darkly entertaining' The Telegraph

'If you haven't read any M.W. Craven yet, fix that immediately' S. A. Cosby

'I've been following M.W. Craven's Poe/Tilly series from the very beginning, and it just gets better and better' Peter Robinson

'Poe and Tilly books are a joy' Steve Cavanagh

'In Tilly and Poe, M.W. Craven has created a stand-out duo who are two of the most compelling characters in crime fiction in recent years' Fiona Cummins

'Darkly comic . . . Thrilling' The Independent

'Clever, sophisticated, utterly gripping thriller from one of the best writers around' Mari Hannah

'Craven has unleashed Ben Koenig into the thriller world. Long may he raise hell in the pages. A superb thriller that will have everyone talking, and gasping.' David Baldacci

'Paging Lee and Andrew Child: you've got company' The Times

Sales Points

- The Mercy Chair is the darkest, most thrilling tale yet in M.W. Craven's Sunday Times bestselling Washington Poe series. M.W. Craven's sales have grown with every book; he is a multi-award-winning author strongly on the rise, and the HB launch of The Mercy Chair garnered his strongest sales so far - no small achievement in a shrinking crime fiction market.

Little, Brown Book Group Ltd.

www.littlebrown.co.uk

- M.W. Craven is increasingly being recognised as one of the most exciting voices in crime fiction in the UK. The Puppet Show, the first book in this series, was the winner of the 2019 CWA Gold Dagger Award. His follow-ups, Black Summer and The Curator, were also longlisted for the CWA Gold Dagger. Most recently The Botanist, book five in the series, won Theakston's Old Peculier Crime Novel of the Year, beating out Elly Griffiths and Ruth Ware, amongst many strong contenders.
- M.W. Craven's trademarks are dark humour, warmth, grisly murders, and hugely satisfying twists and turns. His characters leap out from the page - once a reader has met Poe, Tilly or Ben Koenig (the fearless hero of his other bestselling series) they are hooked for life. Recently TV and film have recognised his potential, and a TV series of two of his books is now in the works. In the words of S.A. Cosby: 'If you haven't read any M.W. Craven yet, fix that immediately'.
- The launch of The Mercy Chair showed growth across all first formats., however his audio sales were particularly huge, with first week sales up by 159%. We are seeing new readers come to MW Craven with every book - his fans are passionate, engaged and growing all the time - if you haven't stocked him before, this is an opportunity to come on board as MW Craven begins to move from a fast-building brand to one of the best-known names in crime fiction.
- M.W. Craven has received endorsements from Peter James, Martina Cole, Mick Herron, Peter Robinson and William Shaw, amongst other big names. M.W. Craven was originally a blogger and reviewer, and has fantastic support from bloggers and key influencers in the crime community.

Author Biography

Multi-award-winning author M.W. Craven was born in Carlisle but grew up in Newcastle. He joined the army at sixteen, leaving ten years later to complete a social work degree. Seventeen years after taking up a probation officer role in Cumbria, at the rank of assistant chief officer, he became a full-time author. He is an instant Sunday Times bestseller and, for his Cumbria-set Washington Poe series, a recipient of the 2019 Crime Writers' Association Gold Dagger, the 2022 Ian Fleming Steel Dagger and the Theakston Old Peculier Crime Novel of the Year 2023. The series has now been translated into twenty-seven languages

The Long Sleep A Practical Guide to Supporting Young People with Suicidal Thoughts

Kate Hill

Keynote

An updated edition of a classic text - the essential guide to the understanding and prevention of suicide in young people.

Description

'[The Long Sleep] has incredible breadth and depth which offers real insights into the minds of those who are suicidal, together with practical guidance on supporting young people and challenging the myths around suicide' Professor Rory O'Connor, Suicidal Behaviour Research Laboratory, University of Glasgow, author of When It Is Darkest

Worldwide, suicide is one of the leading causes of death among young people, and numbers continue to increase. Many young people have experienced suicidal thoughts, self-harmed or attempted suicide. What makes someone particularly vulnerable? Why do proportionally more young men than women resort to suicide? What can be done to support people and prevent young deaths?

The Long Sleep explores the origins, symptoms and meanings of young peoples' suicidal crises and argues the need for sensitive responses and improved understanding if current rates are to be curbed. Combining moving accounts from relatives and young people who have attempted suicide with the evidence of extensive research into the subject, Kate Hill offers important and timely insights into an area fraught with fear and denial.

This classic self-help book has been fully revised and considers:

- Current perspectives around mental and physical healthcare development
- Social, environmental and personal factors that may be triggers
- How to listen to and support young people at risk
- Where and when to seek professional help and support

Sales Points

- A lost classic, originally published on the Virago list.
- Compelling personal story behind the book - author's younger brother died by suicide, and she devoted her career to researching and better understanding why young people are driven to this. But she also died young, a sudden aneurysm before publication, so this revised edition after 25 years, is a chance to bring her work to a wider audience.
- An essential guide for anyone affected by suicide. May be parents, other loved ones, or friends who have lost someone, or who care for someone who has been troubled by suicidal thoughts. Also relevant for those fighting suicidal thoughts themselves.

Reviews

- 'This is a powerful and moving book. It skilfully weaves together young people's individual stories with the research evidence. There is something for everyone interested in youth suicide prevention in The Long Sleep. It has incredible breadth and depth which offers real insights into the mind of those who are suicidal, together with practical guidance on supporting young people, as well as challenging the myths around suicide. I highly recommend this book' - Professor Rory O'Connor, Suicidal Behaviour Research Laboratory, University of Glasgow, author of 'When It Is Darkest'
- 'Everything you have always wanted to know but may have never dared to ask is here with the young person's voice and experiences running like a golden thread through these pages. If, like me, you believe that suicide prevention is everyone's business, then this is everyone's guide' - Angela Samata, arts professional and presenter of the BBC's 'Life After Suicide'
- 'This book profoundly explores the most challenging aspects of being human: facing grief and transforming it into support for others. It provides an essential and compassionate resource for understanding and navigating the often unbearable pain of suicide and bereavement. Through the compelling personal accounts and practical guidance it offers, this book helps turn immense grief into a pathway for healing, ensuring that the suffering of those we've lost becomes a catalyst for deeper human connection and care. A truly moving and invaluable guide for anyone touched by loss' - Dr Rachel Gibbons, chair of the working group on the impact of suicide on clinicians and vice chair of the psychotherapy faculty, the Royal College of Psychiatrists
- 'For anyone interested in understanding how a young person might get to the point of contemplating suicide, this book helps convey how death might hold an allure to some young people and how they may lack the coping skills to identify other solutions. Kate Hill's revised text sensitively explores, through case material and published research, how young people can come to feel very trapped. It dispels key myths about suicide, providing reassurance to young people and those around them and an improved grasp of the complexities of this issue.' - Professor Alexandra Pitman, UCL Division of Psychiatry, Faculty of Brain Sciences, University College London; Patron of the Support After Suicide Partnership

Author Biography

Kate Hill began this book after her brother's death, aged twenty. Her book inspired further research at the University of Oxford Department of Psychiatry, where she had worked with the Centre for Suicide Research and the Samaritans. Kate Hill also edited the SIBBS (Support in Bereavement for Brothers and Sisters) quarterly newsletter and put together an information pack on bereavement from sudden death for the Samaritans. Kate Hill died unexpectedly of a brain bleed, in 1994.

This new edition of The Long Sleep is by Kate's sister, Anna Hill, with the support of Dr Ailsa Snaith and Dr Andrew Parsons. Kate's groundbreaking work and the stories she captured have been complemented with up-to-date insights to continue their positive impact on young lives today.

No Ordinary Duchess

Elizabeth Hoyt

Keynote

The third book in the sparkling, sensual Greycourt series by beloved Regency romance author Elizabeth Hoyt

Description

'Hoyt's writing is almost too good to be true' Lisa Kleypas

New York Times bestselling author Elizabeth Hoyt delivers a breathtaking historical romance filled with drama and intrigue - perfect for fans of Tessa Dare and Eloisa James!

Cold and brooding, Julian Greycourt, the heir to the Windemere dukedom, has always known that his uncle the duke was responsible for his mother's death. Now he's determined to exact revenge against his uncle - if he can find the proof. But Julian hides a secret so explosive it will destroy him if it's ever revealed, and the duke is watching. The last thing he needs is a distractingly sensual woman whose very presence threatens to destroy his plans.

Sunny and cheerful, Lady Elspeth de Moray doesn't know why her brother and Julian fell out all those years ago, but she can't let the autocratic man get in the way of her mission: to retrieve an ancient family text that she believes is in one of the Windemere libraries. Locating the tome, however, proves trickier than she anticipated, and at each turn, she's thrown together with the maddingly mysterious Julian. And the temptation to give in to her family's greatest enemy grows stronger with each intriguing encounter . . .

Keynote

From the brilliant author of the Fox Family saga comes a new spin-off novel, following Bertie's journey to become a pilot as she takes to the skies in Cornwall

Description

From the brilliant author of the Fox Family saga comes a new spin-off novel, following Bertie's journey to become a pilot as she takes to the skies in Cornwall

Set against the dramatic Cornish coastline, this absorbing tale of friends and secrets will delight fans of Rosie Goodwin and Evie Grace.

Sales Points

- A new spin-off novel from the Fox Bay Saga, following the fortunes of Bertie - the eldest daughter of the Fox family - as she learns to become a pilot
- Another brilliant saga from Terri Nixon, set on the Cornish coast in early 1930s

Author Biography

Terri Nixon was born in Plymouth in 1965. At the age of 9 she moved with her family to Cornwall, to the village featured in Daphne du Maurier's Jamaica Inn - North Hill - where she discovered a love of writing that has stayed with her ever since. She also discovered apple-scrumping, and how to jump out of a hayloft without breaking any bones, but no-one's ever offered to pay her for doing those.

Her first commercially published novel was Maid of Oaklands Manor, published by Piatkus in 2013. She has since published the rest of the Oaklands Manor trilogy, the Penhaligon Trilogy and the Fox Bay Saga series.

Under Loch & Key

Lana Ferguson

Keynote

A woman discovers that not all monsters are her enemy - the opposite, in fact - in this new paranormal romance by Lana Ferguson, author of The Fake Mate.

Description

A woman discovers that not all monsters are her enemy - the opposite, in fact - in this new paranormal romance by Lana Ferguson, author of The Fake Mate.

Keyanna 'Key' MacKay is used to secrets. Raised by a single father who never divulged his past, it's only after his death that she finds herself thrust into the world he'd always refused to speak of. With just a childhood bedtime story about a monster that saved her father's life and the name of her estranged grandmother to go off of, Key has no idea what she'll find in Scotland. But repeating her father's mistakes and being rescued by a gorgeous, angry Scotsman - who thinks she's an idiot - is definitely the last thing she expects.

Lachlan Greer has his own secrets to keep, especially from the bonnie lass he pulls to safety from the slippery shore - a lass with captivating eyes and the last name he's been taught not to trust. He's looking for answers as well, and Key's presence on the grounds they both now occupy presents a real problem. It's even more troublesome when he gets a front row seat to the lukewarm welcome Key receives from her family; the strange powers she begins to develop; and the fierce determination she brings to every obstacle in her path. Things he shouldn't care about, and someone he definitely doesn't find wildly attractive.

When their secrets collide, it becomes clear that Lachlan could hold the answers Keyanna is after - and that she might also be the key to uncovering his. Up against time, mystery, and a centuries old curse, they'll quickly discover that magic might not only be in fairy tales, and that love can be a real loch-mess.

Praise for Lana Ferguson

'Addictive, epically smutty and the breath of fresh air the romance genre didn't know it needed' ELENA ARMAS

'Like if Ali Hazelwood and Tessa Bailey had a smutty baby. I devoured every page' RUBY DIXON

'Smart, fun, sexy, and sizzling with romantic tension' SARA DESAI

'Funny, sweet, and very hot' Shondaland

Sales Points

- A fun, paranormal monster romance featuring the Loch Ness Monster. Perfect for those who love: monster romance, magic & mystery, enemies to lovers, only one barn, sarcasm as flirting, touch him and die energy
- For readers that love Bride by Ali Hazelwood, The Fake Mate by Lana Ferguson, Ice Planet Barbarian series by Ruby Dixon, any monster romance novels

Author Biography

Lana Ferguson is a sex-positive nerd whose works never shy from spice or sass. A faded Fabio book cover found its way into her hands at fifteen, and she's never been the same since. When she isn't writing, you can find her randomly singing show tunes, arguing over which Batman is superior, and subjecting her friends to the extended editions of The Lord of the Rings. Lana lives mostly in her own head but can sometimes be found chasing her corgi through the coppice of the great American outdoors.

Blacklight Born

Alexander Darwin

Keynote

Blacklight Born is the explosive conclusion to the Combat Codes Saga, a story where all must seek a final truth as they step back into the Circle. Why do we fight?

Description

The Grievor War has engulfed the Empire of Kiroth. Silas the Slayer has given voice and violence to his warrior kin, providing them a reason to rise up after a thousand years of servitude.

Cego is released into a war-torn world where the lines between shadow and light are blurred. He must decide which side to fight for: with his brother's righteous rebellion or beside the family he has finally found.

Murray Pearson leads a group of Lyceum students on an adventure across Kiroth to follow the path of combat mastery. But Murray seeks something more on this long road. Redemption.

Blacklight Born* is the explosive conclusion to the Combat Codes Saga, a story where all must seek a final truth as they step back into the Circle. Why do we fight?

Sales Points

- The Combat Codes was in the top 10 in the 2020 Self-Published Fantasy Blog Off. It's highly praised by reviewers, and reader reactions have been hugely positive. The book has nearly 300 reviews on Amazon with an average of 4.5 stars.
- With alternating POV chapters between mentor and student, the novel has a quick pace, characters you immediately root for, and remarkably realistic action scenes. It's an underdog story that features a battle-school, caste politics, found family, fighting arenas built with magic and tech, and more.
- To build momentum, this trilogy will be published on a rapid schedule of one book every six months.

Reviews

- 'The Combat Codes is a great read for any fan of realistic martial arts fiction. The integration of a compelling sci-fi / fantasy plot and true-to-life martial arts action make for a unique story that any student of warfare is sure to enjoy' - Ryan Hall, UFC Fighter

Author Biography

Alexander Darwin is a second generation Vietnamese-Jewish-American author living in Boston with his wife and two daughters. Outside of writing, he teaches and trains martial arts (Brazilian Jiu Jitsu). He's inspired by old-school Hong Kong action flicks, JRPGs, underdog stories and bibimbap bowls.

Ardent Violet and the Infinite Eye Starmetal Symphony, Book 2

Alex White

Keynote

A brand new series from the author of A Big Ship at the Edge of the Universe. A ragtag band of musicians is all that stands in the way between an army of giant mechas and humanity's total destruction in the second book of this big-hearted, technicolor space opera trilogy by one of the most exciting voices in science fiction, Alex White.

Description

In this new wide-screen space opera, humanity has met its match. An alien race of enormous robotic AI have destroyed most of humanity's outposts. But, on the eve of the Earth's destruction, a musician made one last desperate attempt to reach out and convince one of humanity's enemies to switch sides. Now, earth just might have a chance to survive...

A ragtag band of misfits is all that stands in the way between an army of giant mechas and humanity's total destruction in the second book of this big-hearted, technicolor space opera trilogy by one of the most exciting voices in science fiction, Alex White.

Ultra-glam enby pop star Ardent Violet thought they could catch a break and enjoy some time with their new boyfriend August Kitko after defeating the giant mechas hellbent on humanity's destruction. However, Ardent didn't count on their mecha allies summoning a host of extraterrestrials to defend Earth.

Between the diplomatic entanglements of the newly-arrived alien Coalition, and a mysterious all-powerful AI establishing a base within their solar system, there's no rest for the wicked.

When August makes a discovery that could turn the tide of the war, Ardent Violet finds they are back in the spotlight for an encore!

Sales Points

- This is Alex White's first series published in the UK
- Queer space opera stories have been doing incredibly well in the market with books like Winter's Orbit, Gideon the Ninth, and A Long Way to a Small Angry Planet leading sales. This new series will be a welcome new addition to the queer space opera canon.
- Incredibly bright and fresh aesthetic to these covers - to appeal to a Gen Z readership, readers of queer space opera and consumers of anime and manga
- A global publication with Orbit USA for a joined up marketing campaign in all English language speaking territories

Rebel Blade

Davinia Evans

Keynote

From one of the most exciting new voices in fantasy comes the satisfying conclusion to Davinia Evans's wickedly entertaining debut trilogy full of monsters, mayhem, dangerous society ladies, and a dragon who holds the fate of the most famous alchemist of all in her claws.

Description

From one of the most exciting new voices in fantasy comes the satisfying conclusion to Davinia Evans's wickedly entertaining debut trilogy full of monsters, mayhem, dangerous society ladies, and a dragon who holds the fate of the most famous alchemist of all in her claws.

Siyon Velo has given magic back to the Mundane. But with it, monsters of myth have awoken to cause chaos in Bezim and--of course--everyone's blaming him. Hunted high and low, Siyon struggles against the rising tide of mystery, magic and mayhem threatening the city that's turned its back on him.

In the Flower District, Lady Sable has unleashed chaos. But in the Avenues, Anahid is desperate to keep her slippery secrets just a little longer, until Zagiri can join the froth and frippery of high society. With scandal stalking the sisters and revolution rumbling anew, the best--and the worst--they can do may not be enough to save their city...

The Alchemist must rise, or Bezim will burn.

Praise for this series:

'From the razor-sharp social climbing to the glimmering alchemist's library to the hidden realms beneath it all, I loved getting lost in this dazzling debut' S. A. Chakraborty, author of The City of Brass

'Notorious Sorcerer's unique magic system adds to this delightful fantasy setting, leaving readers eagerly anticipating the next book in the Burnished City series' Booklist

'Notorious Sorcerer feels like a dream you don't want to wake from. . . I devoured it and want more!' Melissa Caruso, author of The Obsidian Tower

'A delightful and fast-paced ride full of flashy swordplay, high society, and thrilling magic. . . Sheer, glorious fun!' Freya Marske, author of A Marvellous Light

'Notorious Sorcerer is a real delight, with compelling characters and wonderful worldbuilding that sucks the reader in and keeps them engaged from beginning to end' Mike Brooks, author of The Black Coast

'A brilliant alchemical recipe! Notorious Sorcerer is a delicious melange of my favourite things, remixing historical magic with class consciousness. I couldn't put it down' Olivia Atwater, author of Half a Soul

'If you like a healthy dollop of rollicking fun with your epic fantasy, this is the book for you' Megan Bannen, author of The Undertaking of Hart and Mercy

The Burnished City trilogy:

Notorious Sorcerer
Shadow Baron
Rebel Blade

Sales Points

- With multiple queer romances at its heart, the Burnished City trilogy will appeal to fans after more diverse, queer romance fantasy.
- This is a fun and light read with an immediately engaging voice perfect for fans of Nicholas Eames, Sebastien de Castell, and V. E. Schwab.
- The author is based in ANZ, so she will be available for events in that region.
- This is adventure, city-based fantasy at its best, and it pairs a complex magic system with its roots in alchemy, with fast-paced political intrigue and a fantastic ensemble cast of characters
- Rebel Blade is the conclusion of the The Burnished City trilogy. Fans will have to return to the final book to find out the outcome of the cliff hanger M/M romance that was introduced in Notorious Sorcerer.

Reviews

Author Biography

Davinia Evans was born in the tropics and raised on British comedy. With a lifelong fantasy-reading habit and an honours thesis in political strategy, it was perhaps inevitable that she turn to a life of crafting stories full of sneaky ratbags tangling with magic. She lives in Melbourne, Australia, with two humans (one large and one small), a neurotic cat, and a cellar full of craft beer. Dee talks more about all of that on Twitter as @cupiscent

The Official Bridgerton Cookbook

Regula Ysewijn

Keynote

Take a seat at the most sumptuous tables of the ton with over seventy recipes from the world of Bridgerton, the hugely popular Shondaland series on Netflix.

Description

Take a seat at the most sumptuous tables of the ton with over seventy recipes from the world of Bridgerton, the hugely popular Shondaland series on Netflix.

The Official Bridgerton Cookbook allows you to prepare a feast worthy of Queen Charlotte herself, with dishes like Lady Featherington's towering Salmagundi salad, stacked high with persimmon and watercress, or Colin Bridgerton's Aegean Fasolada. For an intimate tête-à-tête, share a glass of mixed-citrus Vin d'Orangerie and browned-butter Artichokes for Two. If you long for something sweet, try Queen Charlotte's Pink Perfection, an oversized macaron finished with fresh raspberries and edible gold, with a side of That Ice Cream, a no-churn, bourbon-cherry treat fit for the Duke of Hastings.

Packed with quotes from favorite characters, show images, and fabulously photographed recipes, this gorgeous book invites fans to the Regency banquet table that is Bridgerton, with food and drink that entertains and delights.

Sales Points

- This beautiful book will be a must-buy for the millions of viewers who have fallen in love with the show and its characters
- We have sold over 1 million copies of Julia Quinn's Bridgerton novels
- Netflix's Bridgerton has quickly cemented itself as a pop culture landmark in the four years since its premiere. The Regency-era romance drama broke records when it first debuted on the streamer in 2020. Season 1 of Bridgerton reached number 1 in 76 countries on Netflix. With a viewership of 82 million households, it was the most-watched series on Netflix. Season 2 scored Netflix's biggest opening weekend for an English-language series after and went on to beat its predecessor to become Netflix's most-watched English-language TV series of all time. Season 3 continued its historic streak in May and June 2024 with the show's biggest opening weekend to date.
- The show has received critical acclaim, earning praise (and two Emmy awards plus many other nominations) for its costuming, acting, dramatic and sexy storylines, and diverse on-screen representation.
- Bridgerton season 4 is confirmed and in development, hopefully due in 2026.

Author Biography

Regula Ysewijn is a Belgian Culinary historian, writer and photographer. She focuses on food and social history of Britain and the Low countries and travels between Belgium and London for her work. She has been a Great Taste Awards judge and World Cheese Awards judge for the Guild of Fine Food for almost ten years and is also one of the two judges for the Belgian version of the Great British Bake Off TV series (Bake Off Vlaanderen) and Junior Bake Off Vlaanderen. She has also worked on TV programs with the BBC like 'The platinum pudding, 70 years in the making'.

Regula is the author of: 'Pride and Pudding': The History of British Puddings, Savoury and Sweet (2016) which was shortlisted for the Andre Simon Award and the Fortnum & Mason Award. 'Belgian Café Culture' (2016) was her second book about the history and culture of Belgium's beer café culture (she is a trained beer sommelier) with evocative photographs of café life by the author herself. The book was featured on the BBC Food Program. The National Trust Book of Puddings followed in 2019, the book 'Brits Bakboek' (British Baking) in Dutch followed also in 2019. Oats in the North, Wheat from the South was published in April 2020 by Murdoch Books, chronicling the story of British baking through climate and import. It was nominated for an Andre Simon Award and named as one of the best cookbooks of 2020 by The New Yorker magazine and the BBC Radio 4's 'The Food Program'. In October 2020 'The Official Downton Abbey Christmas cookbook' was published. Her most recent book is Dark Rye and Honey cake (2023). In this book Regula Ysewijn turns her attention to the baking traditions of Belgium - the place of her birth through art and history.

Regula and her work have been featured internationally on TV, radio in magazines, papers, and online in places such as the Guardian, The Times, Sunday Times, Elle magazine, Flow Magazine, Stylist magazine, Great British Food Magazine, BBC Radio 4 'The Food Program', BBC woman's hour, BBC One Breakfast, Delicious UK and NL, former Jamie Magazine, and many more. She has contributed to CAMRA's Good Beer Guide Belgium 2018 with a foreword.

Breaks Volume 3

The final chapter in the enemies-to-lovers queer webcomic sensation . . . that's a little bit broken

Emma Vieceli and Malin Ryden (Illustrated By Emma Vieceli)

Keynote

Breaks is an LGBTQ+ graphic novel which is perfect for fans of Heartstopper who are looking for something a little darker and more mature. With millions of views and thousands of subscribers on webcomic platforms, Breaks is 'a high school love story, but a little bit broken'.

Description

The final volume in the enemies-to-lovers queer webcomic sensation is here...

School is over, adult life beckons, and new beginnings lie before Ian and Cortland as their relationship deepens. But when Ian's father is released from prison, questions of trust and deceit threaten to tear them apart.

The boys will walk a dark path together as the shadows of the past try to claim the present. The answers to all their questions will be revealed in this final volume, and some may prove dangerous beyond their wildest imaginings...

With millions of views and thousands of subscribers on webcomic platforms, Breaks is perfect for fans of popular LGBTQ+ graphic novels, such as Alice Osman's Heartstopper, who might be looking for something darker and more mature.

Sales Points

- THIS FINAL VOLUME HAS NEVER BEEN IN PRINT BEFORE. With the now complete series now publishing in print for the first time, all three volumes are perfect for fans of popular LGBTQ+ graphic novels who might be looking for something darker and more mature.
- Like bestseller Heartstopper, Breaks is a queer high school love story set in a British high school - but drawn in Emma's manga style. Will appeal both to readers of Alice Osman and of anime and manga.
- 'Overnight sensation' (BleedingCool.com) Emma Vieceli is the winner of a 2022 Scribe Award for her comic book work, and has worked with all the big names in comic book publishing: DC Comics, Marvel, Image, Dark Horse...
- Before Heartstopper, there was Breaks. This now complete story in three volumes has enjoyed millions of views and thousands of subscribers on webcomic platforms.

Reviews

- 'An overnight sensation' - BleedingCool.com (on Emma Vieceli)
- '[Breaks is] a series that does what few others dare to do' - A Place to Hang Your Cape
- 'Brutal and loving, authentically inspiring and authentically awful, Vieceli and Ryden's frenzy of a teen drama is seedy and transcendent and a must' - Kieron Gillen (The Wicked + The Divine/Young Avengers)
- 'Deftly observed, exquisitely paced and beautifully rendered, Vieceli and Ryden's Breaks drips with all the teenage awkwardness, schoolyard viciousness and feelgood humour the subject deserves . . . Exceptional stuff.' - Si Spurrier (Sandman-the Dreaming)

Author Biography

Emma Vieceli (Author)

Emma Vieceli loves telling stories with pictures and believes that comics should be "For everyone, About anything, By anyone" (F.A.B).

Starting out in comics as a hobbyist with UK publisher Sweatdrop, her first contracted graphic novel, Manga Shakespeare: Hamlet with publisher Selfmadehero, launched her into a full-time career in comics in 2006.

Since then, she has worked as an artist and writer across multiple publishers, genres and formats; winning the writers' Scribe award for best graphic novel with her Life in Strange comic series in 2022. Whether spies, vampires, superheroes or teenaged troublemakers, her work often focuses on human connection and matters of the heart. Publications include: Life is Strange (writer. Titan comics), The Modern Frankenstein (artist. Magma comix), Olivia Twist (artist. Dark Horse), Back to the Future (artist. IDW) and Vampire Academy (artist. PenguinRandomhouse).

Malin Ryden (Author)

Malin Ryden is the author of the bestselling interactive fiction books Fallen Hero: Rebirth and Fallen Hero: Retribution, as well as co-author of the critically acclaimed comic Breaks. With a background as a horror writer, she now explores the tangled webs of interpersonal relationships and the darker paths of the human psyche.

Sweet Vidalia

Lisa Sandlin

Keynote

Eliza is as unforgettable a character as Olive in Elizabeth Strout's Olive Kitteridge and Olive, Again.

Description

For readers of Elizabeth Strout and Anne Tyler, a life-affirming novel about marriage, friendship and the powerful dignity of a woman forced to rebuild her life - unexpectedly and alone - in 1960s Texas.

She made herself see Robert with the kids, telling stories of crafty, talking rabbits and determined turtles, his face bright with meanings, with silliness. Made herself see the two of them laughing together in bed, they had done that. That was true. Through the years, they'd had happiness and closeness. They had.

As Eliza sits at her husband's funeral, still stunned by the suddenness of his death, she discovers a lie that turns her life upside down. Almost overwhelmed by the dawning understanding that she has known nothing true about her life, Eliza can't see a way forward at first. How should she come to terms with all that has been a lie? How can she live with herself?

But Eliza has a core of resourceful steel that does not let her down and an innate emotional generosity that she clings to, faced with an almost overwhelming sense of bitterness. Signing up to business classes so she can make a living, she moves into a hotel, The Sweet Vidalia, filled with people facing their own challenges.

As she gathers new friends and new possibilities open up before her, Eliza finds it isn't so simple to leave the past behind....

Sales Points

- Published by Little, Brown US for the first time after three literary crime novels with a tiny independent press - this is the book they want to break her out with.
- For fans of Anne Tyler and Elizabeth Strout: beautifully restrained, uplifting writing with powerful emotions, and characters in whom the reader becomes deeply invested in the character.
- Set in Texas, the home of the hit series Friday Night Lights and with the same sense of community and individual struggle for happiness.

Reviews

- 'Poignant and uplifting, Sweet Vidalia is a beautifully written tribute to the courage of a woman wounded by life who, through steadfast determination, reclaims her self-esteem, and the joy of living' - Kathleen Kent, bestselling author of Black Wolf and The Heretic's Daughter
- 'With her keen understanding of the human heart and a gift for laying it bare on the page, Lisa Sandlin has given us a beautiful story of what it takes to re-build a ruined life from the ground up. Readers will grieve with Eliza Kratke at the shocking upheaval in her marriage. They'll rejoice at her spirit. When they finish the book, they'll miss her. I certainly did!' - Elizabeth Crook, author of The Madstone
- 'The odyssey of a woman forced to rebuild her entire world... Eliza's warmhearted matter-of-factness is her salvation, and her decision to care less about trust and more about humane survival and keeping her spirit uncorroded is doubly refreshing. Sandlin has written a page-turner of an unapologetically female adventure!' - Katherine Vaz, author of Above the Salt

Author Biography

Lisa Sandlin's 2015 debut crime novel, The Do-Right won The Shamus Best First Private Eye Novel Award and the Hammett Prize for Literary Excellence in Crime Fiction. The second book in the series The Bird Boys was chosen by Marilyn Stasio as One of the Ten Best Crime Novels of the Year. Lisa's awards include an National Endowment for the Arts Fellowship, the Jesse Jones award from the Texas Institute of Letters for Best Book of Fiction, a Dobie Paisano Fellowship, Violet Crown Award, Pushcart Prize, New Mexico Book Award, and the Christopher Hewitt Award for Fiction from A&U, America's AIDS magazine. She is an emeritus professor from The Writer's Workshop, University of Nebraska Omaha and she lives in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

How to Raise the Perfect Family Dog Training Your Family-friendly Dog and Creating a Happy Home

Adam Spivey and Evan Norfolk

Keynote

Discover how to train the perfect family-friendly dog and create a happy, harmonious home. An essential read if you are expecting your first child or have children already and are thinking about adding a dog to the mix

Description

Discover how to train the perfect family-friendly dog and create a harmonious home.

There are few things more heartwarming than seeing a happy, healthy relationship between dogs and children. Yet many dogs end up in rescue centres because their owners struggle to manage problem behaviours or cultivate a safe environment at home.

Adam Spivey is here to change that. He has helped thousands of dogs overcome significant behavioural issues and has taught countless families how to responsibly care for their pets.

Whether you are expecting your first child or planning to bring a dog into your family, this book contains everything you need to know, including:

- Choosing an appropriate breed for your lifestyle and deciding between a puppy or rescue dog.
- Preparing your dog and home for the arrival of a newborn.
- Addressing serious behavioural problems.
- Involving children in fun and effective training.
- Teaching mutual respect so that your children grow into responsible, caring dog owners, and your dog becomes a well-behaved companion.

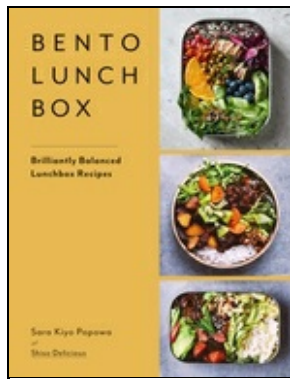

How to Raise the Perfect Family Dog equips you with the knowledge and techniques to properly train your dog and allow your family unit to flourish.

Sales Points

- HUGE PLATFORM: Adam Spivey is the founder of Southend Dog Training, the social media sensation with 2 million followers on TikTok, 1 million on Instagram and 750,000 on Facebook. 1.65 million followers based in the UK.
- UNIQUE: This is the only book aimed at creating a safe, positive environment for children and dogs. This book will help you train a dog you can trust around children and vice versa.
- STELLAR TRACK RECORD: We have sold 55,000 copies of Adam's first two books. They are two of the top backlist titles for Robinson in 2024.
- INTERNATIONAL FOLLOWING: 1 million followers in USA, 200k in Australia, 195k in Canada, 100k in India, 90k in Philippines.

Author Biography

Adam Spivey set up Southend Dog Training in 2012, quickly building a first-class reputation for his straight-talking approach. During the 2020 lockdown, Southend Dog Training's public profile exploded as Adam's videos became an invaluable resource for dog owners around the world. Adam has more than 4 million followers on social media.

Bento Lunchbox Brilliantly Balanced Lunchbox Recipes

Sara Kiyo Popowa

Keynote

A colourful, flavourful and plant-based guide to making delicious bento boxes for breakfast, lunch and dinner, by the founder of Shiso Delicious.

Description

Say goodbye to sad meals at your desk and hello to plant-based rainbow boxes of goodness!

Many people bring their lunch to work to save money, time and to help control what they are eating (with no hidden nasties from processed shop-bought food), but sometimes it's hard to think of interesting, nutritious things to make.

Sara has come to the rescue with her vibrant, fun and inspirational approach to lunch boxes. She concentrates on having 5 clear elements: complex carbs, protein, fruit and veg, and sprinkles as well as the 5 colours used in authentic Japanese cooking: red, white, black, yellow and green. With just a few essential ingredients, you add your extras to create highly nutritious, vegetarian, colourful boxes of joy.

Sara includes ideas for bento breakfast boxes (Sesame Snap Granola Bento and Mighty Muesli), 15-minute bento (Busy Days Instant Noodles and Lazy Tamago Bento), Everyday bento (Red Velvet Quinoa Bento, Green Theme Bento and Zen Bento) and the Fantasy bento (Starry Sky Bento and Fairy Jewel Box Bento).

With tips on how to stock your bento store-cupboard and basic ingredients and recipes to get you going, now is the time for bento to bounce into your breakfast, lunch box, or even into your dinner parties, filling you with bento power!

Quentins
With a new introduction by Celia Imrie

Maev Binchy

Keynote

At the tables of a busy Dublin café, all life is shared - but some stories should never be told.

'Binchy at her very best ... one of the most stunning feel-good endings I can remember' Mail on Sunday

Description

'Absorbing and delightful' Elizabeth Buchan, Sunday Times

'For anyone who likes good storytelling ... it is like being reunited with old friends' Sunday Express

Every table at Quentins restaurant in Dublin has a thousand stories to tell. The staff and customers all have tales of their own, and the restaurant owners themselves have had more than their fair share of trials to cope with.

Now Ella Brady wants to make a documentary about the renowned restaurant but as she uncovers more of what has gone on, she questions the wisdom of bringing it to the screen. And when she is forced to confront a devastating dilemma in her own life, Ella wonders if some stories should not be told . . .

Sales Points

- With a brand new introduction by Celia Imrie
- Reissued in the beautiful new cover design, following the success of NIGHTS OF RAIN AND STARS, TARA ROAD, A WEEK IN WINTER and THIS YEAR IT WILL BE DIFFERENT
- Maeve Binchy is one of today's most successful and best-loved authors, read all over the world and translated into 30 languages
- All Maeve's novels were No.1 bestsellers - she has sold over 40 million copies and been translated into 30 languages
- With the gorgeous cover rebrand, Maeve Binchy's novels are now reaching a new generation of fans

Reviews

- 'Absorbing and delightful . . . gently funny, sometimes poignant . . . In pinning down the humdrum and the ordinary - debts, the drama of a busy kitchen, a wedding, the ache of childlessness - Binchy makes the point that the profound shift in emotion or spirit can take place while peeling potatoes or waitressing in a restaurant. Her multitude of readers stuck doing much the same instinctively feel this' - Elizabeth Buchan, Sunday Times
- 'The author's great skill is to draw you into the world she creates, so that reading her books is like gossiping with old friends ... This is a book which would be perfect self-indulgence on a summer's day or one to cheer a rainy one' - Daily Express
- 'This is Binchy at her finest' - Woman and Home
- 'Binchy at her very best, telling stories with charm, humour and pathos and giving us one of the most stunning feel-good endings I can remember' - Penny Vincenzi, Mail on Sunday
- 'Maeve Binchy is back. In exuberant fettle and fine form she's returned to the bestselling bookshelves that everyone feared she'd forsaken for retirement. QUENTINS is one for her fans worldwide to really get into: another joyful, absorbing Binchy read with lots of heart' - IRISH TIMES

Author Biography

Maeve Binchy was born in County Dublin and educated at the Holy Child convent in Killiney and at University College, Dublin. After a spell as a teacher she joined the Irish Times. Her first novel, LIGHT A PENNY CANDLE, was published in 1982 and she went on to write over twenty books, all of them bestsellers. Several have been adapted for cinema and television, including TARA ROAD. Maeve Binchy received a LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD at the BRITISH BOOK AWARDS in 1999 and the Irish PEN/A. T. CROSS AWARD in 2007. In 2010 she was presented with the BOB HUGHES LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD at the BORD GAIS IRISH BOOK AWARDS by the President of Ireland. His debut thriller, Eeny Meeny, was the UK's bestselling crime debut of 2014 and has been followed by ten more DI Helen Grace thrillers - all Sunday Times bestsellers.

fabric

The fully illustrated history of the famous London club

Joe Muggs

Keynote

25 Years of Fabric uses oral history and images to tell the story of the people, the music and the vision behind the legendary club

Description

Available in a first edition print run strictly limited to 4,000 copies, fabric tells the story of one of the most revered clubs in the history of dance music culture.

fabric captures the journey of a small group of enthusiasts who, rebelling against the commercialisation of the rave scene, converted a derelict meat store in an unfashionable part of London into a venue that remains a cathedral for undiluted dance music with a global following.

Featuring stories about the club's birth, struggles and successes, as well as rare photography and iconic artwork, and an oral history by Joe Muggs featuring over one hundred testimonies from the legendary DJs associated with fabric, this is a celebration of the colossal impact fabric has had on club culture over the last quarter of a century. Above all, it's a story about the misfits and visionaries who made it happen, the curators and resident DJs who have kept it true to its roots, and the experiences of clubbers on the dancefloor.

Missing You Coming soon to Netflix!

Harlan Coben

Keynote

From SUNDAY TIMES bestselling author Harlan Coben, a heart-pounding thriller about the ties we have to our past ... and the lies that bind us together.

Description

From the bestselling author and creator of the hit Netflix drama Fool Me Once comes a thrilling and emotional ride about the ties we have to our past-and the lies that bind us together...

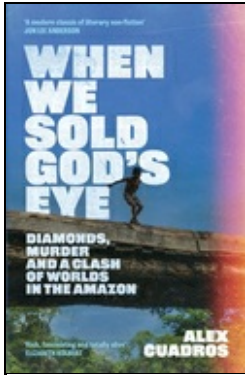

Eighteen years ago Detective Kat Donovan's fiancé Jeff - the love of her life - disappeared and she's never heard from him since. Now, swiping profiles on a dating app, she suddenly sees his face and her world explodes all over again. Jeff's reappearance will force her to dive back into the mystery surrounding her father's murder and uncover long-buried secrets from her past. With lives on the line, including her own, Kat must venture deeper into the darkness than she ever has before, and discover if she has the strength to survive what she finds there.

Author Biography

Harlan Coben is an international No.1 bestselling thriller author. He is the winner of the EDGAR, SHAMUS and ANTHONY AWARDS - the first to receive all three. His books are published in 40 languages, with over 47 million copies in print worldwide.

Both his standalone thrillers and series featuring the indomitable Myron Bolitar have been No.1 bestsellers in over a dozen countries, gracing the lists of the SUNDAY TIMES and the NEW YORK TIMES. His novel TELL NO ONE was turned into the smash hit French film of the same name, and received the highly coveted LUMIERE (French Golden Globe) for best picture as well as four CESARS (French Oscar). Harlan lives in New Jersey with his family.

When We Sold God's Eye Diamonds, Murder and a Clash of Worlds in the Amazon

Alex Cuadros

Keynote

The astonishing true story of how one the Amazon's last uncontacted tribes came to embrace capitalism (and all its bloody consequences) by operating an illegal diamond mine in the depths of the rainforest

Description

'A first-class work of reporting [and] a work of compassion for Indigenous peoples everywhere' BENJAMIN MOSER, Pulitzer Prize-winning author of SONTAG

'A non-fiction novel of modern conquest, capitalism and murder . . . a stunning work' GREG GRANDIN, Pulitzer Prize-winning author of FORDLANDIA

Growing up in a remote corner of the Amazon, Pio, Maria, and Oita learned to hunt wild pigs and tapirs, gathering Brazil nuts and açai berries from centuries-old trees. Then the first highway pierced through. Loggers and prospectors invaded, and they lost their families to terrible new weapons and diseases. Pushed to assimilate, they struggled to understand their new, capitalist reality. They ended up forging an uneasy symbiosis with their white antagonists - until a seam of diamonds erupted in their territory and decades of suppressed trauma burst out in a shocking act of retribution.

Based on six years of immersive reporting and research, WHEN WE SOLD GOD'S EYE tells a unique kind of adventure story, a story of survival against all odds; of the temptations of wealth and the dream of prosperity; of a vital ecosystem threatened by the hunger for natural resources; of genocide and revenge. It's a story as old as the first European encounters with Indigenous people, playing out in the present day. But most of all, it's about a few startlingly clever individuals and their power to adapt - even thrive - in the most unlikely circumstances.

Sales Points

- GRIPPING STORY: This is a modern-day fable of capitalist initiation, told by a journalist who has spent the best part of a decade immersing himself in his subject. It is both an anthropological study and a compelling true-crime saga
- HIGH-PROFILE ENDORSEMENTS: The book has been praised by multiple winners of the Pulitzer Prize and other bestselling authors in this space
- FUTURE CLASSIC: Scholars are already calling this a classic of the genre and a landmark work of investigative reporting. It is a strong contender for multiple prizes and looks set to be the definitive book about the Cinta Larga story
- TRANSCENDS GENRES: astonishingly intrepid and perceptive reporting in the service of what is both a unique business/true crime crossover narrative and a hypnotic tale of murder and retribution on the boundary between worlds

Reviews

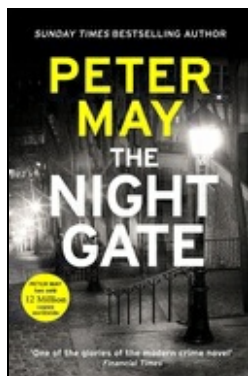

- 'Achieves the remarkable feat of understanding and sympathizing with both sides' attitudes, cultures, and motives, with a vibrant cast of real people' - John Hemming, author, THE CONQUEST OF THE INCAS
- 'An extraordinary work of narrative nonfiction . . . a complex and tragic story, deeply reported and beautifully written - a remarkable literary achievement' - Douglas Preston, #1 New York Times bestselling author, THE LOST CITY OF THE MONKEY GOD
- 'Truly remarkable reporting . . . It will complicate your view of the world, which is usually a useful thing' - Bill McKibben, author, THE END OF NATURE

Author Biography

Alex Cuadros is a former Bloomberg staff reporter and the author of Brazillionaires, which was long-listed for the Financial Times Business Book of the Year award. He spent six years based in Brazil and has been reporting from the Amazon since 2013.

The Night Gate

the Razor-Sharp investigation starring Enzo MacLeod

Peter May

Keynote

The Night Gate* spans three generations, taking us from war-torn London, the Outer Hebrides of Scotland, Berlin and Vichy France, to the deadly enemy facing the world in 2020.

Description

THE 12 MILLION COPY BESTSELLING AUTHOR OF THE LEWIS TRILOGY AND THE CHINA THRILLERS
AWARD WINNING AUTHOR OF THE CWA DAGGER IN THE LIBRARY 2021

'Enzo MacLeod is one of the most unusual crime solvers I have ever met.'

BookBrowse

'No one can create a more eloquently written suspense novel than Peter May.'
New York Journal of Books

In a sleepy French village, the body of a man shot through the head is disinterred by the roots of a fallen tree. A week later a famous art critic is viciously murdered in a nearby house. The deaths occurred more than seventy years apart.

Asked by a colleague to inspect the site of the former, forensics expert Enzo MacLeod quickly finds himself embroiled in the investigation of the latter. Two extraordinary narratives are set in train - one historical, unfolding in the treacherous wartime years of Occupied France; the other contemporary, set in the autumn of 2020 as France re-enters Covid lockdown.

And Enzo's investigations reveal an unexpected link between the murders - the Mona Lisa.

Tasked by the exiled General Charles de Gaulle to keep the world's most famous painting out of Nazi hands after the fall of France in 1940, 28-year-old Georgette Pignal finds herself swept along by the tide of history. Following in the wake of Da Vinci's Mona Lisa as it is moved from château to château by the Louvre, she finds herself just one step ahead of two German art experts sent to steal it for rival patrons - Hitler and Göring.

What none of them know is that the Louvre itself has taken exceptional measures to keep the painting safe, unwittingly setting in train a fatal sequence of events extending over seven decades.

Events that have led to both killings.

The Night Gate spans three generations, taking us from war-torn London, the Outer Hebrides of Scotland, Berlin and Vichy France, to the deadly enemy facing the world in 2020. In his latest novel, Peter May shows why he is one of the great contemporary writers of crime fiction.

LOVED THE NIGHT GATE? Read the first book in the acclaimed China Thrillers, THE FIREMAKER

LOVE PETER MAY? Order his thrilling standalone, A SILENT DEATH

Sales Points

- A DUAL TIMEFRAME NARRATIVE set against a backdrop of the Nazi occupation of France in the 1940s and beside the France of Autumn 2020 during the Covid lockdown.
- ENZO MACLOED is a beloved character for Peter May fans. This fourth book in the series can also be read as a standalone for new readers.
- Peter May's novels are translated into 19 languages worldwide and, since the January 2011 publication of The Blackhouse, have sold over 4 million copies.

Author Biography

Peter May was born and raised in Scotland. He was an award-winning journalist at the age of twenty-one and a published novelist at twenty-six. When his first book was adapted as a major drama series for the BBC, he quit journalism and during the high-octane fifteen years that followed, became one of Scotland's most successful television dramatists. He created three prime-time drama series, presided over two of the highest-rated serials in his homeland as script editor and producer, and worked on more than 1,000 episodes of ratings-topping drama before deciding to leave television to return to his first love, writing novels.

Locked In the heart-pounding final instalment of the internationally bestselling Department Q series

Jussi Adler-Olsen
Translated by Caroline Waight

Keynote

The hotly anticipated final instalment in Jussi Adler-Olsen's internationally bestselling Department Q series - pre-order now!

Description

<h4>The thrilling final instalment in the Department Q series - pre-order now! </h4>

On the day after Christmas, head of Department Q Detective Carl Mørck finds himself handcuffed in a police car headed for Copenhagen's Vestre prison. After 15 years, a violent case from his past has caught up with him. Charges of drug trafficking and murder threaten to destroy his life and career.

But he is being framed. Someone has a million dollar bounty on his head to make sure he doesn't talk, putting him in grave danger among the prison's incarcerated criminals and corrupt officers. The question that remains is, why?

Carl's colleagues at the Copenhagen Police Department instantly turn their backs on him, leaving the ever-loyal Department Q team as his only hope. In search of answers, Rose, Assad, and Gordon must disobey direct orders from way up the chain to try to unravel the case.

With only each other to trust and Carl's battle against the unknown mastermind's henchmen worsening by the day, they must work faster than ever before if they are to clear his name - and save his life.

The Road Trip
an hilarious and heartfelt second chance romance from the author of The Flatshare

Beth O'Leary

Keynote

The bestselling novel full of summer romance, from the author of The Flatshare. Soon to be a major TV series starring Emma Appleton, Laurie Davidson and David Jonsson.

Description

'Beth O'Leary is that rare, one-in-a-million talent who can make you laugh, swoon, cry and ache all in the same book' Emily Henry

Addie and her sister are on an epic road trip to a friend's wedding in rural Scotland. But, not long after setting off, a car slams into theirs. The driver is none other than Addie's ex, who she hasn't seen since their traumatic break-up two years earlier.

Dylan and his best mate are heading to the wedding too, so Addie has no choice but to offer them a ride. And with four hundred miles to go, they can't avoid confronting the very messy history of their relationship . . .

Will they make it to the wedding? And, more importantly, is this really the end of the road for Addie and Dylan?

Readers LOVE The Road Trip

 'Pure joy'
  'Another triumph from Beth O'Leary'
  'Loved it from start to finish'
  'Unputdownable'

Praise for The Road Trip

'Funny, relatable and tender' Red
 'This book is perfect' Rosie Walsh
 'Beth is quite rightly earning her title as "Queen of Uplit"' Prima
 'If Richard Curtis and Nora Ephron made a story baby' Zoella Book Club
 'So romantic and moving and brilliantly told' Louise O'Neill
 'O'Leary does it again! The Road Trip is another sure-fire hit, filled with characters you won't forget' Mike Gayle
 'An achingly tender love story' Richard Roper
 'Read this! Absolutely loved it!' Christina Lauren

Sales Points

- A tie-in edition coinciding with the Paramount+ series, starring Emma Appleton, Laurie Davidson and David Jonsson

Reviews

- 'A charming, heartfelt story of love found and love potentially lost - The Road Trip is steamy and sexy, properly witty, and unabashedly romantic. I couldn't get enough! I loved the glimpses into "then" and "now". Nobody does it like Beth does' - Laura Jane Williams
- 'Read this! Absolutely loved it!' - Christina Lauren
- 'This book is perfect' - Rosie Walsh
- 'The Road Trip is a humorous yet deeply moving journey toward confronting the past, forgiveness, and reconciliation, with a poignant detour to a summer of young love in Provence. I loved the vivid cast and the depth and intimacy in O'Leary's writing' - Helen Hoang

Author Biography

Beth O'Leary is a Sunday Times bestselling author whose novels have been translated into more than thirty languages. Her debut, The Flatshare, sold over a million copies and is now a major TV series. Her subsequent novels, The Switch, The Road Trip, The No-Show and The Wake-Up Call, were all instant bestsellers. Beth writes her books in the Hampshire countryside with a very badly behaved Golden Retriever for company. If she's not at her desk, you'll usually find her curled up somewhere with a book, a cup of tea and several woolly jumpers (whatever the weather).
